Praying the Rosary before the Weekend Masses Join us in praying the rosary 30 minutes before the weekend Masses. We also invite families to consider leading the prayer.
 Avail yourself of the free rosaries found at the back of the churches. Assistance and guide to praying the rosary are provided.
Holy Mary, pray for us!

Lectio Divina
 All parishioners are invited to join the Lectio Divina group. It is a wonderful and simple way to increase your intimacy with God by reading and pondering the Sunday Gospel together.
 The Word will enrich your life, transform your ways, and fill that hunger that we all have. Please come and try it.....God is surely calling you! Any questions, please contact Jill Lee at 315-553-2243.

Please pray for Dick and Joanne Nichols, Peg Soule, Rose Johnson, Gail Nau, Joanne Knapp, Ann Minosh, Bill and Margaret McHenry, David Reid, Dennis "Gravedigger" Anderson, Danny Dreschler and all of our Parishioners who are ill, at home or in the hospital.

St. Mary Magdalene Church is open on Tuesday evenings from 7pm until 8pm for private mediation. All are welcome to visit for all or part of the hour.

 SPECIAL MASS INTENTIONS
 Parish Mass offerings have long been a means for us to remember people and special intentions in prayer, to express sympathy and to support our parish. If there is someone you wish to remember or if you have a special intention, please contact the Parish Office.
 The suggested offering for a Mass is $10. You can also have the Sanctuary Lamp burn in memory of your loved one for the entire week. Suggested offering is $5.00.

Living in Grace through the Sacraments

Sacrament of Baptism. We share in your joy as we welcome the newest member of your family into God's family, the Church. Our Parish offers Baptism Preparation Program to parents, with godparents, who wish to share their faith with their child. To register, please call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Reconciliation. Persevere on the journey to holiness: Say "No" to sin and "Yes" to God's love, mercy and forgiveness. Saturday from 3:30 to 4:00 PM at SMM, or call the Parish Office to make an appointment.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Jesus continues his healing ministry through his Church. If you or any parishioner is ill at home, in the hospital or the nursing home, and desires to celebrate this sacrament of healing, call the Parish Office to schedule a visit.

Sacrament of the Eucharist. Fr. Upson brings communion during sick calls. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (communion ministers) can and may bring you communion regularly. Call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. You and your fiancé are called to mirror the love of Jesus for his Church! Please contact the Parish Office at least six months before the intended date of your wedding so we can help you prepare for this wonderful sacrament of committed love.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. Do pray for vocations to the ordained priesthood and permanent diaconate. It is our common obligation to raise vocations—ordained, religious, married, single—in the Church. Now do you happen to know if and when our parish has produced an ordained priest for our diocese?

Are You a Visitor or a Newcomer? Welcome and we are glad you're here to worship with us! If Fr. Upson missed your presence, please see him after Mass.

Be near to the founts of divine life!

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

The 2017 Care-Net Baby Bottle Campaign will run between Mother's Day (Sunday 5/14) and Father's Day (Sunday 6/18). Empty baby bottles will be available at the churches starting on the week-end of 5/13, and will be available throughout the campaign, to take home and fill up with either coins, bills or checks. Your donations are a special offering which supports women (and men) who receive care from the local pregnancy center ministry, which is located in Newark. Care-Net helps women in our community with life-affirming resources for and during their pregnancy and beyond. Please contact Rosemary Seymour at 315-594-6037 or Marie Smith at 315-947-6107, if questions and thank you for your support.

As We Pray:

This can be a very good week to grow in a sense of and practice with the notion of being a "contemplative in the midst of action." We have practically a whole week of gospels about Jesus' gift of himself to us as the "Bread of Life." This gives us the opportunity to let that mystery be in the background of our consciousness every day this week, as we go about our everyday tasks. What makes it "contemplative" is that we will be asking for graces each morning, and we will let our desires and our activity interact.

We can begin reflecting upon how often we "work for food that perishes." The pay-off, the success, the accomplishment, the reward we receive for what we do is often quite passing and unsatisfying. It would be important to be able to sense anything that appears to be food that doesn't last and name it as such this week. The real food, the life-giving nourishment that our Lord offers us is himself.

If we can't celebrate the Eucharist daily this week, we can make what we used to call a "spiritual communion" simply by opening our hearts and desiring to receive our Lord, so that he remain in us and we remain in him. We can practice consciously choosing union with Jesus, our Risen Lord and only Savior, and experiencing how that would affect the choices we need to make throughout our day. If we begin each day, asking for the grace of this union, and renew the desire at brief moments we have at various times in the day, our focus and attention begins to change. We will experience a peace and a gifted lack of hunger and thirst for so many of the things that draw us away from him, from loving, from mercy, from consciousness on those in need. If the background focus of each day this week is to desire to be fed by a closeness with my Lord, it doesn't matter how busy I am, or how many conflicts I have to face, or what suffering I or my loved ones must endure. His flesh and blood are real food and drink because they are the real sacrifice that takes away the power of sin and death itself. United with his surrender to the Father, we set free from whatever can take away the life he gained for us. For this gift, for this faith, we can give thanks for every night, as we review our union with our Lord each night.
