Sacrament of Reconciliation. Persevere on the journey to holiness: Say "No" to sin and "Yes" to God's love, mercy and forgiveness. Saturday from 3:30 to 4:00 PM at SMM, or call the Parish Office to make an appointment.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Jesus continues his healing ministry through his Church. If you or any parishioner is ill at home, in the hospital or the nursing home, and desires to celebrate this sacrament of healing, call the Parish Office to schedule a visit.

Sacrament of the Eucharist. Fr. Upson brings communion during sick calls. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (communion ministers) can and may bring you communion regularly. Call the Parish Office.

It is our common obligation to raise vocations—ordained, religious, married, single—in the Church. Now do you happen to know if and when our parish has produced an ordained priest for our diocese?

Are You a Visitor or a Newcomer? Welcome and we are glad you're here to worship with us! If Fr. Upson missed your presence, please see him after Mass.

Be near to the founts of divine life!

As We Pray:

As Jesus heals, he gives courage. As he carries out his ministry of healing and announcing the good news of the closeness of the Kingdom of God, he is filled with compassion for all those who suffer and who need this encouraging news. So Jesus calls us to join him. This isn't the call to priesthood or religious life. This is the universal call addressed to all of us to see with the same compassionate eyes of Jesus and to reach out and heal others. As Jesus sends us, he knows that we will encounter resistance and opposition - sometimes from within our own heart first, but certainly from others. He always tells us not to be afraid. Even when things happen that take away our peace, our peace will be given back to us. He knows he is sending us like sheep among the wolves of this world, and so he asks us to be both wise and simple - two great gifts for our mission. He assures us that even when we don't know how to speak tender or reconciling words, the Spirit will speak through us. The only thing we need to fear is the stuff we get into that can actually destroy our soul.

What a great week to ask for the grace to be responsive to his call! All week, with attentive eyes, we can see with Jesus' own compassion, where he is directing our heart to love and to heal. We begin the week with such a great orientation. Jesus invites us to come to him with our burdens and the stuff that weighs us down and then he sends us. He doesn't say we are not supposed to expect burdens. He just invites us to take up his burden, the ministry he gives to each of us.

Each day, following our pattern of focusing throughout the day in brief moments of conversation and connection with the Lord, we can consciously recognize the "calls" the Lord has given us and is offering us. And we can acknowledge them, accept them, embrace them. Of course, our primary relationships are all the ways we live our discipleship call. So often though, these relationships are where we need the greatest courage to be tender, compassionate and courageous in loving, in letting the Spirit speak through us. Let's ask ourselves all week: how can I bring healing and peace to each important relationship in my life? And, where I'm afraid, or resistant, or even where I've given up, that can be the place of the deepest and most important prayer of the week. It certainly can be the place we come to Jesus to be refreshed.

All week, we can try to be conscious of how our day to day work is part of our call from the Lord: to be an agent in the world for good, to make products, to offer goods and services to people, to coordinate human activities, to protect and defend others' rights, to heal others. Some of us are still available to be called to a specific work or ministry. This is a great week to ask for openness. Every one of us can find great meaning and deeper peace in placing what we do in the pattern of our response to God's call to us, through Jesus. When we do our work, we can thank the Lord for this work; ask to do it faithfully, lovingly, compassionately and justly. Some of us are struggling to find work that offers us dignity and a living wage. We can ask the Lord to send us to be his servants, with our gifts, and trust in his fidelity.

As we move through the week, growing in our relationship with the Lord all week, as we make these more conscious background moments of insight, recognition and connection, we can give thanks and trust that if we scatter his seed, with trust and with abandon, we don't have to worry. The harvest has his guarantee of abundance.

Heaven Starts Now: Becoming a Saint Day by Day, by Fr. John Riccardo

Do you have a plan to become a saint? It seems I have a plan for EVERYTHING in my life but when it comes to my faith I sometimes fall short. Why do I need a plan to become a saint? I attend Mass, pray each day, am involved in my Parish community, and am a good person. The answer to that question is "Jesus Christ loves you; he gave his life to save you; and now he is living at your side every day to enlighten, strengthen, and free you." Pope Francis reminds us that our goal is to grow in Christ so that we can become saints. The goal of Fr. John Riccardo's book is to help us do just that! This book was recently read by our book group.

There are several things that are appealing about this book. First, if you love personal stories, Fr. Riccardo does an excellent job of speaking to the reader with stories, not from long ago and far away, but with stories from his life. Coupled with Scripture you are able to make a plan that is easy to follow. He does an amazing job of speaking to you in a very meaningful, deep, yet down-to-earth way. As a result, you can look at your life differently and set small goals to change. Second, you can read the chapters in any order! Fr. Riccardo examines Scripture in seven different areas involving issues that we have to grapple with in some way or another in our lives. So, if you are struggling to forgive, read the chapter on forgiveness. If fear is pervasive in your life at the moment, read the chapter on fear and anxiety. Third, it doesn't matter where you are on your spiritual journey. This book includes easy, life-applicable steps to help any person grow spiritually from wherever they are on life's faith journey. In addition, each chapter ends with thought provoking questions that invoke further reflection.

Never have I equated sainthood with an everyday kinda person like me! This book totally changed my perspective. So, are you ready to come up with a plan to accomplish the goal of becoming a saint? If so, Heaven Starts Now: Becoming a Saint Day by Day is a book that will guide you along the way in making changes in your life that will grow your spirituality.
