 CELL PHONES: Catholic Daughters are accepting cell phones for recycling by the Victim Resource Center in Newark. The Center provides shelter and services for victims of domestic violence. You can deposit phones in marked containers at the rear of the church.

 Coffee Hour Hosts: Please remember to get supplies from Bob's Big M when you need things like coffee, cups, etc. They can be charged there and the receipt can be put in the collection plate for the office to pay. Thank you for your hospitality!

 SPECIAL MASS INTENTIONS
 Parish Mass offerings have long been a means for us to remember people and special intentions in prayer, to express sympathy and to support our parish. If there is someone you wish to remember or if you have a special intention, please contact the Parish Office. The suggested offering for a Mass is $10. You can also have the Sanctuary Lamp burn in memory of your loved one for the entire week. Suggested offering is $5.00.

Living in Grace through the Sacraments

Sacrament of Baptism. We share in your joy as we welcome the newest member of your family into God's family, the Church. Our Parish offers Baptism Preparation Program to parents, with godparents, who wish to share their faith with their child. To register, please call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Reconciliation. Persevere on the journey to holiness: Say "No" to sin and "Yes" to God's love, mercy and forgiveness. Saturday from 3:30 to 4:00 PM at SMM, or call the Parish Office to make an appointment.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Jesus continues his healing ministry through his Church. If you or any parishioner is ill at home, in the hospital or the nursing home, and desires to celebrate this sacrament of healing, call the Parish Office to schedule a visit.

Sacrament of the Eucharist. Fr. Upson brings communion during sick calls. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (communion ministers) can and may bring you communion regularly. Call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. You and your fiancé are called to mirror the love of Jesus for his Church! Please contact the Parish Office at least six months before the intended date of your wedding so we can help you prepare for this wonderful sacrament of committed love.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. Do pray for vocations to the ordained priesthood and permanent diaconate. It is our common obligation to raise vocations—ordained, religious, married, single—in the Church. Now do you happen to know if and when our parish has produced an ordained priest for our diocese?

Are You a Visitor or a Newcomer? Welcome and we are glad you're here to worship with us! If Fr. Upson missed your presence, please see him after Mass.

Be near to the founts of divine life!

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

New Envelopes

Anyone who has contributed to our Parish with a numbered envelope or a check has been entered into the Contribution software program. This includes visitors and "summer" people. We will be using a new company for our collection envelopes. Please make sure your envelopes have the correct mailing address. If they don't, please contact the office as soon as possible. Anyone listed in our Contribution Directory will receive a tax statement for yearly contributions.

As We Pray:

This week we can be moved by the powerful fidelity of a woman like Ruth. And the familiar gospel stories will guide us through the week most with practical advice and challenging ideas.

It is good to begin by recognizing our own issues with God. For many of us, the graces with which we will be asking God to bless us have to do with our freedom from being so independent. For some of us, it will be to ask to keep our priorities straight this week. It may mean that we let this be a week when we ask what "success" really means for us. It could be a week to try to name more clearly what our purpose, our mission in life is: what the Lord calling us to do with our lives.

The real grace of finding intimacy with God in the midst of our busy everyday lives is that it helps keep us focused. When we get really busy, it can be like being on a treadmill. We begin our day in the morning, go where the day takes us and jump off at night. Our desire here is to live with more choice, more freedom. We want to live each day more reflectively.

So, if I know the gospel is going to ask me to ponder how the lure of having more and more money can become an impediment to my salvation, or how generous and merciful God is, or how my busyness leads me to forget or lose my priorities, then I can choose to let those reflections shape my week. The way I can do that is by beginning each day with focus. What gives focus is recognizing and naming a desire, a grace or gift I ask of God, for that day, conscious of what I will be experiencing, what will challenge me, what opportunities will be offered me. What really makes this effective, is to keep talking with Jesus about those desires in the small, quiet moments that are tucked into each day, the "in between times" of the day.

The effect is that more and more of the details of our lives are interacting with the Word of God and the desires which God is inspiring in our hearts. As we move toward the weekend, we can prepare to hear Jesus ask us who we say he is - who he is for us. Connecting with Jesus in our daily lives allow him to become my Savior and the intimate friend who knows me through and through and is helping me come to know myself with great honesty, integrity, freedom and peace.

Creighton U Online Ministry

The Community Clothing Center wishes to extend immense gratitude to the parishioners of CCBT for their over-the-top generous response to the backpack drive. You are all incredible! We collected over 300 new packs along with school supplies and treats; the children were excited and delighted, as were the parents/grandparents.

*Please note a special thanks to those parishioners who work tirelessly at the center: Pam & Breezy Auclair, Brian & Ann Thompson, Eileen Bielemeier, Cecile Bogino and Dc. Bob Lee.

THANK YOU!!! This is our faith in action ♥!

The Diocese of Rochester Catholic Men's Conference will be held on Saturday, October 14th at St. Jude the Apostle Parish, 4100 Lyell Road, Rochester from 7:30 am to 4 PM. Flyers and other information is available in the back of the church. For questions please contact Dick Campbell or Deacon Bob. The Conference website is: www.exultrochester.org

Fall 2017 Adult Catholic Education "Genesis to Jesus"

From mid-September to mid-October Deacon Bob will lead a seven session journey through scripture called from "Genesis to Jesus" as prepared and offered by the St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology. From the creation story and Noah's ark, we will trace the history of salvation as it unfolds in the series of covenants that God makes with His chosen people - from Abraham and the twelve tribes of Israel to Moses and finally to King David. We will see how this history reaches its climax and fulfillment in Jesus and the Church.

We will learn about the basic Catholic principles for reading Scripture; God's covenants in the Bible, and their significance for reading and interpreting the Bible and the broad outlines of the books of the Bible to understand their place in the story of salvation told in the Bible.

Two identical sessions will be provided each week, one (Tuesdays) in the evening and the other (Thursdays) in the morning. Course start date and the location of morning and evening sessions will be determined in September.

Participant Workbooks are $12.00 each.

To register, please enter your information in the sign-up sheets available in the back of the church after all Masses.
