Living in Grace through the Sacraments

Sacrament of Baptism. We share in your joy as we welcome the newest member of your family into God's family, the Church. Our Parish offers Baptism Preparation Program to parents, with godparents, who wish to share their faith with their child. To register, please call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Reconciliation. Persevere on the journey to holiness: Say "No" to sin and "Yes" to God's love, mercy and forgiveness. Saturday from 3:30 to 4:00 PM at SMM, or call the Parish Office to make an appointment.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Jesus continues his healing ministry through his Church. If you or any parishioner is ill at home, in the hospital or the nursing home, and desires to celebrate this sacrament of healing, call the Parish Office to schedule a visit.

Sacrament of the Eucharist. Fr. Upson brings communion during sick calls. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (communion ministers) can and may bring you communion regularly. Call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. You and your fiancé are called to mirror the love of Jesus for his Church! Please contact the Parish Office at least six months before the intended date of your wedding so we can help you prepare for this wonderful sacrament of committed love.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. Do pray for vocations to the ordained priesthood and permanent diaconate. It is our common obligation to raise vocations—ordained, religious, married, single—in the Church. Now do you happen to know if and when our parish has produced an ordained priest for our diocese?

Are You a Visitor or a Newcomer? Welcome and we are glad you're here to worship with us! If Fr. Upson missed your presence, please see him after Mass.

Be near to the founts of divine life!

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

CCBT Quilt Raffle AND THE WINNER IS...

Caroline Smith!

The drawing for the quilt took place at the Men's Pancake Breakfast held at St. Thomas on September 24. The winning ticket was drawn by Father Mike and was sold by Evelyn Nielsen. Evelyn attends the 10:30 Mass at St. Mary Magdalene. She is a member of the CCBT Book Group that meets Wednesday evenings at 6:00. Caroline Smith is Evelyn's daughter-in-law's best friend and is a resident of Wolcott. She retired from Butler Shock when they closed and worked for a brief period of time at North Rose-Wolcott District Office. We met at McDonald's so I could hand the quilt over and had a very nice chat. She was tickled pink (an expression my grandmother used all the time) to have won. With all of your help we earned $2,038! I NEVER could have done this on my own. Sincere thanks for your help in making this raffle a huge success!

The Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity Ministry Day

We serve God and neighbor through our God-given gifts.

Ministry Day for all current and new Liturgical Ministers and Pastoral Council will take place on Saturday, October 21, at St. Mary Magdalene starting at 9:00 AM. Breakfast goodies will be provided. If you are interested in serving and missed the insert in the bulletin to sign up, or you currently serve but have not responded. Have no fear. You can find the document on the website under Latest News...Liturgical Ministry Recruitment. (<http://ccblessedtrinity.dreamhosters.com/wpcontent/uploads/2017/09/LiturgicalMinistryDayRecruitment7.17.pdf>). Another option would be to take a moment to give Mary DeLisio a call to let her know of your availability (315-594-9430). All liturgical ministers are expected to attend. Looking forward to seeing everyone!

Our Book group meets on Wed at 6:00pm at SMM. Come join us in faith sharing as we are reading: "Living a Gentle Passionate Life." Any questions please contact Kathy Demass at kmdemass@gmail.com or Susie Gallo at susiedgallo@gmail.com.

As We Pray:

This week we can ask for the desire to become the least, not the greatest, in ways that applies to us. We can ask to experience humility and grace in the real limits we experience in our lives. All of us have some places where we come to know our humanity and are brought to our knees: perhaps we continue to be judgmental of others even after asking for forgiveness ourselves; we keep falling into the same temptations; we present ourselves one way in public, but act a very different way with those closest to us; we never get around to acts of generosity and charity, perhaps even to our parents.

We can all begin our mornings with our own version of this prayer: "Lord, help me to be more simple, authentic, transparent and trusting today. I don't want to try to be someone else." We might ask, "Help me not 'look back' today, Lord" or "Lord, I need your help today to be more accepting of others who are different. Help me to see you in those who suffer or struggle in any way."

For those who have hurt us in some ways, we can do as Thérèse of Lisieux suggests and pray for those people. It is nearly impossible to hold a grudge or hang onto a hurt inflicted by someone when we are praying for that person each day.

Throughout the day this week, we can take brief moments, in the background of our consciousness, while driving, going to a meeting, shopping, doing laundry, to repeat and deepen these prayers. And, may our God send prophets and angels and his own Son to help us find intimacy with God in the midst of our busy lives. We can beg God to increase our faith and in the simplest ways each day, we can let our tiny seed of faith bloom in extraordinary ways in our lives.

Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA)

Hopefully everyone has received the Catholic Ministries Appeal mailing by this time and has had a chance to review the materials. Extra copies of the brochure are available in church. The theme for this year's campaign is "Glorifying the Lord by Our Lives". The CMA affords each of us an opportunity to support the larger Church so that it can meet real needs throughout the Diocese. Your support enables the Church to be responsive and caring. Please be generous in your response Our goal this year is $17,212.00. Every gift is needed and important! If it is easier, you can make your gift at www.dor.org-you can also pay your pledge off in six installments. Pledge forms, which can be put in the collection or mailed directly to the Diocese, are available in the back of the church. Please pray for the success of our efforts. Thank you!
