Living in Grace through the Sacraments

Sacrament of Baptism. We share in your joy as we welcome the newest member of your family into God's family, the Church. Our Parish offers Baptism Preparation Program to parents, with godparents, who wish to share their faith with their child. To register, please call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Reconciliation. Persevere on the journey to holiness: Say "No" to sin and "Yes" to God's love, mercy and forgiveness. Saturday from 3:30 to 4:00 PM at SMM, or call the Parish Office to make an appointment.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Jesus continues his healing ministry through his Church. If you or any parishioner is ill at home, in the hospital or the nursing home, and desires to celebrate this sacrament of healing, call the Parish Office to schedule a visit.

Sacrament of the Eucharist. Fr. Upson brings communion during sick calls. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (communion ministers) can and may bring you communion regularly. Call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Marriage. You and your fiancé are called to mirror the love of Jesus for his Church! Please contact the Parish Office at least six months before the intended date of your wedding so we can help you prepare for this wonderful sacrament of committed love.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. Do pray for vocations to the ordained priesthood and permanent diaconate. It is our common obligation to raise vocations—ordained, religious, married, single—in the Church. Now do you happen to know if and when our parish has produced an ordained priest for our diocese?

Are You a Visitor or a Newcomer? Welcome and we are glad you're here to worship with us! If Fr. Upson missed your presence, please see him after Mass.

Be near to the founts of divine life!

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

Understanding and Encountering Persons with Same-Sex Attraction

Presented by: The New Evangelization Forum, a new speaker series at St. Bernard's School of Theology and Ministry.

Have you ever struggled to understand and accompany your friends and family members with same-sex attraction? Come hear Dr. Horne, a nationally renowned speaker and clinical psychologist, explore the pastoral dimensions and demands of the Church's teaching and ministry regarding same-sex attraction. Discussion and cookies will follow! 7pm, Wednesday, October 25th, at St. Bernard's (120 French Road, Rochester, NY 14618). Cost is $25.

World Mission Sunday

Next week, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Each year, the entire Church is invited to support the young mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve some of the poorest of the poor. This year, we are invited to "Chat With The Pope" to learn more about his missions. Scan this year's World Mission Sunday poster using Facebook Messenger for your mobile device, or learn more at ChatWithThePope.org. Please keep the Missions in your prayers and be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

The Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity Ministry Day

We serve God and neighbor through our God-given gifts.
Ministry Day for all current and new Liturgical Ministers and Pastoral Council will take place on Saturday, October 21, at St. Mary Magdalene starting at 9:00 AM. Breakfast goodies will be provided. If you are interested in serving and missed the insert in the bulletin to sign up, or you currently serve but have not responded. Have no fear. You can find the document on the website under Latest News...Liturgical Ministry Recruitment. (<http://ccblessedtrinity.dreamhosters.com/wpcontent/uploads/2017/09/LiturgicalMinistryDayRecruitment7.17.pdf>). Another option would be to take a moment to give Mary DeLisio a call to let her know of your availability (315-594-9430). All liturgical ministers are expected to attend. Looking forward to seeing everyone!

Our Book group meets on Wed at 6:00pm at SMM. Come join us in faith sharing as we are reading: "Living a Gentle Passionate Life." Any questions please contact Kathy Demass at kmdemass@gmail.com or Susie Gallo at susiedgallo@gmail.com.

As We Pray:

From Sunday to Sunday there is so much here for us about authenticity. Jesus invites us to simplicity - to let go of the things that bind us and "come, follow me." He wants to take us beyond obedience to the law or acts of piety. These are not bad in themselves, but they can hold a particular vulnerability to in-authenticity or hypocrisy, unless they are rooted in deep reliance upon God and faith in Jesus as our Savior. Mere cleanliness on the outside or placing burdens on people's shoulders leaves us still far away from an experience of God's love that overflows into love and mercy for others.

This week, let's wake up each day and ask God for the grace to be more authentic. While putting on our slippers, standing next to the bed for just 30 seconds, let's give this special focus to our day. While washing up or getting dressed, on the way to work, while doing laundry or walking down the hall to a meeting, saying a brief grace before even a quick meal, we can remind ourselves of this desire in our hearts. Choosing humility is simply choosing honesty in very small ways. Throughout our days, each of us can find words to express to God our desire to be more honest and transparent with ourselves and with others. "Lord, let me be just who I am today. I know that in your eyes I'm a loved sinner. In grateful humility, don't let me be harsh or judgmental with my family, with friends or co-workers. Let me give up bragging, shading the truth, any kind of falsehood. I want to abstain today from even thoughts that take me down a road of cheating on my relationships, my commitments and my relationship with you."

This is all about focus and choosing to place our attention on our relationship with Jesus in the most ordinary moments of our day. As we end each day, we can give thanks that our desire was given to us - that whenever we open our hearts, our God is always there, ready to bless our desires.

Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA)

Hopefully everyone has received the Catholic Ministries Appeal mailing by this time and has had a chance to review the materials. Extra copies of the brochure are available in church. The theme for this year's campaign is "Glorifying the Lord by Our Lives". The CMA affords each of us an opportunity to support the larger Church so that it can meet real needs throughout the Diocese. Your support enables the Church to be responsive and caring. Please be generous in your response. Our goal this year is $17,212.00. Every gift is needed and important! If it is easier, you can make your gift at www.dor.org - you can also pay your pledge off in six installments. Pledge forms, which can be put in the collection or mailed directly to the Diocese, are available in the back of the church. Please pray for the success of our efforts. Thank you!

CELL PHONES: Catholic Daughters are accepting cell phones for recycling by the Victim Resource Center in Newark. The Center provides shelter and services for victims of domestic violence. You can deposit phones in marked containers at the rear of the church.
