Adoration and Exposition @ St. Mary Magdalene
The Blessed Trinity Community will hold Adoration, Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament on the first Tuesday of every month from 7 to 8 PM.
Come and spend an hour with the Lord.
Holy Hour starts at 7pm on Tuesdays the rest of the month.

Prayer for Our Troops

Salvatore Interlichia-Army, Sam Interlichia-Marines, Noah Foro-Air Force, Bryan Wetzel-Air Force
Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our times of need, and give them peace.
I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.
AMEN

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
By the power of God, cast into hell Satan,
And all the evil spirits,
Who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Living in Grace through the Sacraments

Sacrament of Baptism. We share in your joy as we welcome the newest member of your family into God's family, the Church. Our Parish offers Baptism Preparation Program to parents, with godparents, who wish to share their faith with their child. To register, please call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Reconciliation. Persevere on the journey to holiness: Say "No" to sin and "Yes" to God's love, mercy and forgiveness: Sunday's after mass, at St. Mary Magdalene, St. Thomas/St. Jude and on the 1st Tuesdays of the month at 6:30pm at St. Mary Magdalene or call the Parish Office to make an appointment.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Jesus continues his healing ministry through his Church. If you or any parishioner is ill at home, in the hospital or the nursing home, and desires to celebrate this sacrament of healing, call the Parish Office to schedule a visit.

Sacrament of the Eucharist. One of our priests will bring Communion during home visits or Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (communion ministers) can and may bring you communion regularly. Call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Confirmation. Our young parishioners who wish to prepare to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit in the sacrament of Confirmation must be enrolled in a 2 year preparation program in Religious Education.
Adults must call the rectory.

Sacrament of Marriage. You and your fiancé are called to mirror the love of Jesus for his Church! Please contact the Parish Office at least six months before the intended date of your wedding so we can help you prepare for this wonderful sacrament of committed love.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. Do pray for vocations to the ordained priesthood and permanent diaconate. It is our common obligation to raise vocations—ordained, religious, married, single—in the Church. Now do you happen to know if and when our parish has produced an ordained priest for our diocese?

Are You a Visitor or a Newcomer? Welcome and we are glad you're here to worship with us!

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time September 1, 2019

When he had seated himself with them to eat, he took bread, pronounced the blessing, then broke the bread and began to distribute it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him.
Luke 24:30-31

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

OUR SINCERE GRATITUDE

The Backpack Bonanza went very smoothly and was a successful and happy event. I would like to extend the warmest of thanks to all those generous parishioners who contributed book bags, school supplies or money. There were several happy campers, and photos were sent to the CCBT website. A special bundle of thanks goes out to our hardworking and dedicated volunteer staff from CCBT: Pam & Breezy Auclair, Eileen Bielemeier, Cecile Bogino, Dewey Poole, Brian & Ann Thompson, and Bob Lee (who faithfully plugged it each Sunday!). Your help at the clothing center is priceless.

With deep appreciation to all,

Jill Lee

From the desk of Fr. Walter
Christian Joy

My Dear People,
In the last article on gratitude, I made an important distinction. The gratitude of a Christian is more than ‘staying positive’ or being optimistic, it is supernatural. This distinction is even more pivotal to understand joy.
Christian joy comes, above all, from the Holy Spirit. In his letter to the Galatians, St. Paul lists it as a fruit of the Spirit. But the immediately preceding passage reminds us of a crucial and lifesaving fact that our contemporary culture wants us to forget: this joy can only come after we repent of sin. In other words, true joy and being in opposition to God’s plan for us in the moral life cannot go hand in hand.
Pleasure is ‘cheap’, joy is not. Pleasure can come, both from good things as well as bad. Sharing a finely prepared meal with those we love, travelling to interesting places, watching or playing a favorite sport, reading an interesting book, all these things are pleasurable, and they are also good. But doing drugs, cheating in marriage, and stealing money can also be pleasurable, and they are bad. And here is where we see the difference between pleasure and joy. Joy is not cheap, and if it is a gift, it is also earned. Pleasure can come from our senses, but joy is something spiritual which is caused by the possession of a true and authentic good which fulfills the deepest longings of our hearts. In other words, joy comes when we possess God and His friendship. Joy comes from the knowledge of being loved by a God who has blessed us with His salvation and His grace. It is ‘earned’ because we have been willing to let go of sin, we have humbled ourselves in repentance.

A friend of mine currently studying for the priesthood had a life changing experience in a mission trip to South America in High School. Leaving his comfortable and self-satisfied suburban world, he encountered real poverty for the first time. But what he also encountered was that these people who had none of the things that he thought he needed to make him happy, had something he had never really seen before—joy. Whatever they lacked, they possessed God, and they knew it. His journey to the priesthood began at that moment.
The place where we are guaranteed to find joy is in the Sacrament of Confession. There, we name our sins, repent of them, and receive, not only God’s forgiveness, mercy and healing, but especially, and overwhelmingly, His joy. It is a foretaste of the life of heaven, a preview of eternal happiness. Our culture can promise and deliver all sorts of pleasures, some never known to man before our day. But only Jesus Christ can give joy. Repentance, gratitude, joy—this is our inheritance as Christians. God is not frugal with His gifts. May we not fear to receive them.
Fr. Walter
