Salvatore Interlichia-Army, Sam Interlichia-Marines, Noah Foro-Air Force, Bryan Wetzel-Air Force
Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our times of need, and give them peace.
I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.
AMEN

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
By the power of God, cast into hell Satan,
And all the evil spirits,
Who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Living in Grace through the Sacraments

Sacrament of Baptism. We share in your joy as we welcome the newest member of your family into God's family, the Church. Our Parish offers Baptism Preparation Program to parents, with godparents, who wish to share their faith with their child. To register, please call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Reconciliation. Persevere on the journey to holiness: Say "No" to sin and "Yes" to God's love, mercy and forgiveness: Sunday's after mass, at St. Mary Magdalene, St. Thomas/St. Jude and on the 1st Tuesdays of the month at 6:30pm at St. Mary Magdalene or call the Parish Office to make an appointment.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Jesus continues his healing ministry through his Church. If you or any parishioner is ill at home, in the hospital or the nursing home, and desires to celebrate this sacrament of healing, call the Parish Office to schedule a visit.

Sacrament of the Eucharist. One of our priests will bring Communion during home visits or Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (communion ministers) can and may bring you communion regularly. Call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Confirmation. Our young parishioners who wish to prepare to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit in the sacrament of Confirmation must be enrolled in a 2 year preparation program in Religious Education.
Adults must call the rectory.

Sacrament of Marriage. You and your fiancé are called to mirror the love of Jesus for his Church! Please contact the Parish Office at least six months before the intended date of your wedding so we can help you prepare for this wonderful sacrament of committed love.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. Do pray for vocations to the ordained priesthood and permanent diaconate. It is our common obligation to raise vocations—ordained, religious, married, single—in the Church. Now do you happen to know if and when our parish has produced an ordained priest for our diocese?

Are You a Visitor or a Newcomer? Welcome and we are glad you're here to worship with us!

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time September 29, 2019

When he had seated himself with them to eat, he took bread, pronounced the blessing, then broke the bread and began to distribute it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him.
Luke 24:30-31

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

NEW UPDATE ON FAMILY PROMISE

The Family Promise Program has been expanding and flourishing. Several families have been placed into sustainable housing in recent months, and more families are waiting to get into the program. Thirteen plus churches are currently hosting these families in Wayne County with meals and overnight beds. As the program continues to grow, there is an agreed upon purchase offer with St. Joseph the Worker Parish to purchase the Rectory at St. Michael's Church in Lyons for use as the new Day Center. This will provide greater flexibility to meet the needs as the program expands.

It has been one year since we here at CCBT did the tag tree drive. As more and more families use the program, the need is increasing to keep the Day Center stocked with items and gas in the cars for all the transport. Thus, our Social Ministry Team has posted more tags at the backs of our churches for parishioners to take a tag, purchase the item and return it to the church in the labeled receptacle, or give the item to Pam AuClair, Kathy DeMass, Cathy Immerman, Jill Lee, or Marie Smith. This will be an effective way for CCBT to contribute to this ecumenical effort.

We thank you for your wonderful generosity and willingness to contribute to this very compassionate cause.

Any questions, please see Marie Smith or Jill Lee

UPDATE ON CARE NET

There is great news on the Care Net front! Thanks to CCBT and other supporters of Care Net, they have met their financial goal to purchase their next ultrasound machine. They ask that we please pray that the ever-increasing numbers of first-time moms come to Care Net to be an eyewitness to the miracle of a new human life within them. The final total of funds donated by CCBT was $1062.11. Thank you again for your generous donations to the Baby Bottle Campaign. ~ Rosemary Seymour and Marie Smith

The Beginning of Wisdom

My Dear People,

Last week I wrote to you about the difference between information and wisdom. We are inundated with information, noise and data, and yet we are desperately in need of wisdom. You're not going to find this sort of wisdom on the News, in self-help books or in the check-out line of a store. This is why I encouraged you to get and actually read from the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Even the Bible references alone make it worth your time. But what about wisdom itself? How do we get it? Reading the Catechism is certainly a good start, but it's not the only ingredient necessary.

The book of Proverbs contains a famous phrase which offers us a key insight: The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom (Proverbs 9:10). Many times, you find that the Bible qualifies as good, or 'just', those people who 'fear the Lord'. Fear is not a positive word for us. We typically fear things which are evil and can harm us, and so we avoid them. This is not what the fear of God is, in other words, avoiding Him. But we can 'fear' someone who is good, out of respect, as in a coach, a teacher, or a parent. We can fear offending them, or hurting them, or displeasing them.

The Bible highly prizes this 'fear of the Lord'. For example, Psalm 34, v. 11 invites: Come, children, hearken to me, I will teach you the fear of the Lord. Now, if the biblical 'fear' isn't fright, there is a connection between our ordinary meaning. Truly, great, overwhelming or powerful things normally produce in us a reaction of awe and respect. A lion, the ocean, or even human love can be 'frightening'. We should have a healthy respect for what is magnificent, awesome (in the true sense) or untamable. Authentic love should make us respect another person. The biblical fear of the Lord is all of these and more. At its root it is a holy respect and reverence for God who is All Powerful and All Good. This reverence towards the supreme holiness and 'otherness' of God lays the foundation for any ordered relationship with Him.

Unfortunately, modern Western society has in many ways lost any real respect for God. For many young people the idea that there is an All Powerful God who will hold them accountable for their actions, has a plan for them, and to Whom they owe worship is not even remotely in their world view. If "me" is the center of the universe, then God certainly can't be Lord.

Respect is needed for love, as every happily (or unhappily) married couple knows. Reverence for God is needed to know and love Him. This is true wisdom, or its beginning at least, and the foundation of our salvation and eternal happiness. Let's all be truly wise Christians.

Fr Walter
