Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.

I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and

By the power of God, cast into hell Satan,
And all the evil spirits,
Who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

Dear Blessed Trinity Friends,
In order to best serve the families of our parish, the Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity is now offering a Family-Led, Religious Education Program which mirrors the Faith Formation Programs offered at our cluster Parishes. This program allows families to work independently or together to teach their children our beautiful Catholic Faith. The parish will supply you with the needed materials, such as the child's workbook, the parent guide, and a bible. Our Faith Formation Coordinator Maureen would be happy to get the supplies to you and go over the program at a time convenient for you.
For families interested, we will still gather before Mass at St. Mary Magdalene's on the first and third Sundays of the month, from 10:45am-11:45am, but this is not a requirement. This will be led by Maureen Mahoney and a group of volunteers.
Mary Durocher and Kathy DeMass will soon be implementing a similar monthly program at St. Thomas Church following the 8:00am mass. Details will be forthcoming for that church shortly, but feel free to reach out to them to let them know if you have children you want enrolled in the Faith Formation program.
We want to make sure to reach all of the families with children and to welcome each of you to participating in this parent-led program. We will support you in any way we can.

From the desk of Fr. Walter
My Dear People,
Last weekend in my homily in Newark and Lyons I spoke about the importance of parents and grandchildren praying for the return to the Faith of their children and grandchildren. These prayers are powerful and God listens. But while the Church is divine, and will last until the end of time, the Faith of individuals can and does die. What is at stake is not the health of the Church, but the spiritual and eternal health of future generations.
There are many reasons why younger people don't practice the Faith, not the least of which is a culture hostile to basic principles and morals of the Gospel. But it's not only the culture as cause, it's also an unspoken attitude that has subtly permeated within. There are different ways of describing it, but I like to call it “self-help Catholicism”. Meaning, the Faith is first about “me”, and what I decide to make of it, like other things I buy and choose to make my life “comfortable” and pleasant. In a wealthy, consumer culture, religion becomes another option among many. This attitude, even if many people wouldn't admit it, is the way they have come to frame and determine their practice of the Faith. And let's be honest, even priests have promoted it! At first, it sells.
But what is at stake here is much deeper. The question is: can I determine what the Faith is- is it really up to me? Can I decide what I like or dislike, and then reject what doesn't suit me? Is church, Mass, or God, something purely therapeutic? In other words, is my relationship with God on God's terms, or mine? But what is more to the point is that “Self-help Catholicism” reduces the Church to a merely human organization that has no capacity or even right to mediate my relationship with God. I'm not accountable to anyone. If the Church presents things I don't like, then it must be wrong, because anything that makes me feel bad can't be true. There are clever ways to package this which seem reasonable, but in the end, I decide who God is and what the Church should do and say.
But Christ said: “I am the way, the truth and the life,” not “follow your own path.” He began His announcement of the Kingdom of God by the words: “repent and believe” not “stay comfortable and decide for yourself.” And either Jesus established the Catholic Church to guide us, teach us, help us, and bring us to Him and Him to us, or it is a merely human organization with no authority besides what we give it.
There is a reason our churches have a crucifix in the center. It's not self-help, it's God-help. Faith requires obedience. Obedience is hard. But so is dying on a Cross. The cross, obedience, don't always sell, but they save. And sometimes, comfort can kill.
Fr Walter
