Adoration and Exposition @ St. Mary Magdalene
The Blessed Trinity Community will hold Adoration, Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament on the first Tuesday of every month from 7 to 8 PM. Come and spend an hour with the Lord.
Holy Hour starts at 7pm on Tuesdays the rest of the month.

Prayer for Our Troops

Salvatore Interlichia-Army, Sam Interlichia-Marines,
Noah Foro-Air Force, Bryan Wetzel-Air Force
Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our times of need, and give them peace.
I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.
AMEN

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
By the power of God, cast into hell Satan,
And all the evil spirits,
Who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Living in Grace through the Sacraments

Sacrament of Baptism. We share in your joy as we welcome the newest member of your family into God's family, the Church. Our Parish offers Baptism Preparation Program to parents, with godparents, who wish to share their faith with their child. To register, please call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Reconciliation. Persevere on the journey to holiness: Say "No" to sin and "Yes" to God's love, mercy and forgiveness: Sunday's after mass, at St. Mary Magdalene, St. Thomas/St. Jude and on the 1st Tuesdays of the month at 6:30pm at St. Mary Magdalene or call the Parish Office to make an appointment.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Jesus continues his healing ministry through his Church. If you or any parishioner is ill at home, in the hospital or the nursing home, and desires to celebrate this sacrament of healing, call the Parish Office to schedule a visit.

Sacrament of the Eucharist. One of our priests will bring Communion during home visits or Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (communion ministers) can and may bring you communion regularly. Call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Confirmation. Our young parishioners who wish to prepare to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit in the sacrament of Confirmation must be enrolled in a 2 year preparation program in Religious Education. Adults must call the rectory.

Sacrament of Marriage. You and your fiancé are called to mirror the love of Jesus for his Church! Please contact the Parish Office at least six months before the intended date of your wedding so we can help you prepare for this wonderful sacrament of committed love.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. Do pray for vocations to the ordained priesthood and permanent diaconate. It is our common obligation to raise vocations—ordained, religious, married, single—in the Church. Now do you happen to know if and when our parish has produced an ordained priest for our diocese?

Are You a Visitor or a Newcomer? Welcome and we are glad you're here to worship with us!

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time November 17, 2019

When he had seated himself with them to eat, he took bread, pronounced the blessing, then broke the bread and began to distribute it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him.

Luke 24:30-31

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

Please send in your contribution as soon as you can!

Your gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) is crucial. Donations fund the day-to-day operations of the Diocese of Rochester. Without your generosity, we could not continue to support our parishes and fulfill our mission.

When your donation is received, it is utilized immediately for current operations. The CMA supports offices, personnel and ministries that provide assistance and resources to parishes, pastors, parish ministers and Pastoral and Finance Councils through such offices as Safe Environment, Information Technology, Evangelization & Catechesis, Pastoral Services, Finance, Building/Property Management, Stewardship and Communications, the Tribunal and Risk Management. In fact, the CMA funds nearly 60 percent of the current diocesan operating budget in seven key areas:

- Serving the poor, the elderly and infirm through Catholic Charities
- Providing diocesan-wide services to our parishes and institutions
- Educating youth and young adults in the Catholic faith in our schools, parish religious education programs and on college campuses.
- Funding the formation of seminarians, deacons, pastoral leaders and vocations
- Supporting the ministries of Bishop Matano, the New York State Catholic Conference, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Vatican.
- Funding operations & support services of the Pastoral Center, including maintenance and capital improvements

A detailed allocations chart can be found at www.dor.org/cma.

All funds raised in the CMA are used for programs, services and ministries. No CMA contributions are used for the settlement of legal cases.

The Diocese will accept gifts, separate from the CMA, to assist in funding settlements with victims. Contact the Office of Stewardship and Communications at 585-328-3210 for more information.

From the desk of Fr. Walter
The Mass and the Cross of Christ
My Dear People,

The calendar year ends in less than two months, but the Church year ends in two weeks. You may notice that the readings for the last several weeks have focused on both the reality of death, the promise of the resurrection, and the ultimate coming of Christ at the end of the world. Next week we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, the last Sunday of the Church year, before the season of Advent arrives. Advent reminds us of the time at the beginning of human history when the world awaited the coming of a Savior. But before the yearly cycle of grace begins anew, we must recall and reflect upon, not beginnings, but endings.

Last week I wrote to you about the importance of the Mass as an integral and essential way that we pray for our beloved dead. Why is this? Well, because the Mass is the most powerful and effective prayer; it is the prayer of Christ Himself that we have the privilege of participating in. What is central to our worship at Mass is not first what we do, but what Christ does. As in all the seven Sacraments, Christ is the ultimate One acting. The crowning masterpiece of the seven Sacraments is the Eucharist, where Christ is present, not only the moment that the Sacrament is enacted, but in a permanent presence through the outward appearance of bread and wine, but which is in fact His Most Sacred Body and Blood.

This Eucharistic presence comes from the Mass. What is the Mass? It is more than a meal where we remember what Jesus did some 2,000 years ago. It is the mystical, unbloody representation of His saving death on Calvary. You notice in the Eucharistic prayer that the priest constantly refers to the saving sacrifice on the altar. Earlier, he invites the people to pray saying: “Pray that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the Father Almighty”. This sacrifice isn’t our own, but the sacrifice of the Cross which we are given access to once again through the Liturgical action. But it becomes “ours” as we join ourselves, our lives, and our worship to the perfect sacrifice of Jesus. His sacrifice truly becomes “ours” because it was done “for us”, to save us and forgive our sins. This is why Christ said, on the eve of His Passion, when the Mass was instituted, “This is my Body, given for you”. The Mass is not a new sacrifice, but it makes present again mystically the sacrifice of our redemption.

Since the Mass is the Cross, it has all the saving power of the Cross to forgive sins and heal. And we apply this power for our beloved dead. May we see with the eyes of Faith the great “Mystery” which happens daily in our churches and recognize the One Who is both our beginning and our end.

Fr Walter

Supporting your Church while also lowering your year-end tax bill

If you are over 70, you may be eligible to make a tax-free gift as a direct rollover from your Individual Retirement Account. A Qualified Charitable Distribution from your IRA won't count as taxable income, and will further your mission to help our Parish. This can be a one time gift, or can be used to fulfill your weekly giving.
