Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
By the power of God, cast into hell Satan,
And all the evil spirits,
Who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Our Parish Mission Statement
We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

HOW AND WHEN YOUR CMA GIFT IS USED

Your gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) is crucial. Donations fund the day-to-day operations of the Diocese of Rochester. Without your generosity, we could not continue to support our parishes and fulfill our mission.

When your donation is received, it is utilized immediately for current operations. The CMA supports offices, personnel and ministries that provide assistance and resources to parishes, pastors, parish ministers and Pastoral and Finance Councils through such offices as Safe Environment, Information Technology, Evangelization & Catechesis, Pastoral Services, Finance, Building/Property Management, Stewardship and Communications, the Tribunal and Risk Management. In fact, the CMA funds nearly 60 percent of the current diocesan operating budget in seven key areas:

- Serving the poor, the elderly and infirm through Catholic Charities
- Providing diocesan-wide services to our parishes and institutions
- Educating youth and young adults in the Catholic faith in our schools, parish religious education programs and on college campuses.
- Funding the formation of seminarians, deacons, pastoral leaders and vocations
- Supporting the ministries of Bishop Matano, the New York State Catholic Conference, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Vatican.
- Funding operations & support services of the Pastoral Center, including maintenance and capital improvements
- Supporting the fundraising efforts of the CMA campaign, such as the cost of mailings, gift and data processing and staffing.

A detailed allocations chart can be found at www.dor.org/cma.

All funds raised in the CMA are used for programs, services and ministries. No CMA contributions are used for the settlement of legal cases.

The Diocese will accept gifts, separate from the CMA, to assist in funding settlements with victims. Contact the Office of Stewardship and Communications at 585-328-3210 for more information.

Feast of Christ the King
My Dear People,

Of the four Gospels, St. John alone records certain details of the mysterious conversation between Pontius Pilate and Christ during the Savior's passion. Facing the subtle interrogation of Pilate, Christ responds to the question of His kingship by saying that His kingdom is not of this world. But the shrewd Pilate, sensing evasion in Christ's answer as tacit acknowledgement of a higher sovereignty, probes again- "So you are a King?" And with noble and quiet dignity Christ declares: "You say that I am a King, for this was I born, and for this I came into the world, to bear witness to the truth." Jesus does not need to receive human approval to lay claim to power. He does not come to barter authority from earthly rulers. He is Lord by His very nature as God. But it is a curious and disconcerting Royalty. Earthly kings conquer territory by shedding other men's blood in battle. This King, to whom everything belongs by right from the beginning of the world, sheds not the blood of other men, but His own. The territory He would conquer is not the soil of some foreign region, but the soil of the human soul and heart. To claim a land for their own, rulers plant their flag as a sign of conquest. But the flag that Christ plants into the tender soil of the human heart is His Cross.

For indeed the human heart had become a land and territory foreign and alien in its relationship with God. No prophet, no earthly king could ultimately reestablish God's reign in this inhospitable domain. But God's goodness and wisdom were greater than man's sin. Therefore, He did not send an emissary or prophet to fix the disorder that humanity had made and could not escape, but came Himself among His own creatures, born in poverty, living in obscurity, and dying in shame. He drank the dregs of the chalice of suffering, receiving in His sacred body the price of our sins.

Jesus was no luckless political revolutionary, no ill-fated, failed zealot, no naive and reckless teacher, He was, He is the Son of God. And in the inscrutable divine plan, the throne by which God would reign once again upon earth became the Cross, his viceroy a humble fisherman, and His empire, the hidden realm of sanctifying grace.

At the end of time, Christ will come in glory, and there will be no choice but to bend the knee to His Lordship. But now He still comes as He did at Nazareth, at Calvary, hidden, humble, and begging. It remains for us to choose. The world passes by the spectacle of the Cross and asks, like Pilate, "Are you a King?" But when it hears Him answer, it responds, just like Pilate, "What is truth?" In the end, Pilate was not deciding Christ's fate, life or death, as he surely thought, but his own. And so, of course, are we.

Fr Walter
