Prayer for Our Troops
Salvatore Interlichia-Army, Sam Interlichia-Marines, Noah Foro-Air Force, Bryan Wetzel-Air Force
Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our times of need, and give them peace.
I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.
AMEN

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
By the power of God, cast into hell Satan,
And all the evil spirits,
Who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Our Parish Mission Statement
We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

From the desk of Fr. Walter
My Dear People,

I want to use this bulletin letter, not so much to talk about one of the truths of our holy Faith, but to bring to your attention something more subjective and personal. Since it has been now a little over six months since I have been with you, I want to take the occasion, during this time of Christmas and New Year’s, to share what has often been the subject of conversations with myself and Fr. Tedesche: our gratitude to you.

Before and during Christmas we were inundated with cards, gifts, and treats which all expressed the kindness, generosity and prayers of our good and beloved parishioners towards the both of us. We are both at a loss to thank everyone properly for all that was done for us, and above all, what was done for the different churches during the sacred days surrounding Our Lord’s birth. Of course, this is itself the culmination of the many, many kind and thoughtful things that you have been doing since the cluster began at the end of last June. Not the least among the things that we are so thankful to you for is your patience with us. We know it can certainly be frustrating with so many changes. Thank you for helping make this new arrangement so successful and working together as we make the best of it. Time and time again Fr. Tedesche and I have remarked to each other how supportive people have been and how eager to be of service. To see your generosity is a great aid and inspiration to our own.

In addition to the thanks that both of us want to communicate, I can add those of a newly ordained priest in his first parish assignment. May God, Our Lady, and St. Joseph reward you for all the good things you have said, done, and shown to me. Thank you for so much for your encouragement and help, your advice, your concern, and your support. It is hard for me to believe that the first seven months of my priesthood have passed by so quickly. It still seems that only recently I was preparing for ordination, and still thinking about what it would be like to finally become a priest after waiting for so many years.

But above all, both Fr. Tedesche and I want to tell you how much we appreciate and benefit from your prayers. The center of everything is Christ, and we are united and joined in and for Him. Since we can never exaggerate the good accomplished by prayer and intercession, your prayers to make us holy priests who accomplish God’s will and work are the most precious treasure that you share with us.

So, for all that you have done and are doing, for all the tiny things that so easily and often go unacknowledged, for all the kindness shown us this Christmas and all year, we want to say, “Thank you”. God bless you and may we all keep one another on the path to heaven.

Fr. Walter
