Noah Foro-Air Force, Bryan Wetzel-Air Force
Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our times of need, and give them peace.
I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.
AMEN

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
By the power of God, cast into hell Satan,
And all the evil spirits,
Who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Living in Grace through the Sacraments

Sacrament of Baptism. We share in your joy as we welcome the newest member of your family into God's family, the Church. Our Parish offers Baptism Preparation Program to parents, with godparents, who wish to share their faith with their child. To register, please call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Reconciliation. Persevere on the journey to holiness: Say "No" to sin and "Yes" to God's love, mercy and forgiveness: Sunday's after Mass, at St. Mary Magdalene, before and after Mass at St. Thomas/St. Jude and on the 1st Tuesdays of the month at 6:30pm at St. Mary Magdalene or call the Parish Office to make an appointment.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Jesus continues his healing ministry through his Church. If you or any parishioner is ill at home, in the hospital or the nursing home, and desires to celebrate this sacrament of healing, call the Parish Office to schedule a visit.

Sacrament of the Eucharist. One of our priests will bring Communion during home visits or Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (communion ministers) can and may bring you Communion regularly. Call the Parish Office.

Sacrament of Confirmation. Our young parishioners who wish to prepare to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit in the sacrament of Confirmation must be enrolled in a 2 year preparation program in Religious Education. Adults must call the rectory.

Sacrament of Marriage. You and your fiancé are called to mirror the love of Jesus for his Church! Please contact the Parish Office at least six months before the intended date of your wedding so we can help you prepare for this wonderful sacrament of committed love.

Sacrament of Holy Orders. Do pray for vocations to the ordained priesthood and permanent diaconate. It is our common obligation to raise vocations—ordained, religious, married, single—in the Church. Now do you happen to know if and when our parish has produced an ordained priest for our diocese?

Are You a Visitor or a Newcomer? Welcome and we are glad you're here to worship with us!

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 16, 2020
When he had seated himself with them to eat, he took bread, pronounced the blessing, then broke the bread and began to distribute it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him.

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

Here for You... You Matter!
Here for You is a new outreach program which aims to connect willing, trained volunteers with Wayne County residents who are isolated due to age, illness, or disability. Here for You strives to discover those who are isolated and who have needs which are not being met by family, friends, or agencies. Here for You provides training, guidance, and support to volunteers who will go out to the homebound and isolated to offer them support and to enable them to connect with other organizations and agencies as well. Here for You ensures that volunteers have a proper background screening and Safe Training as is appropriate in their work with vulnerable adults. Here for You provides opportunities for the volunteers to gather on a regular basis for support, networking, training, and the sharing of best practices. Here for You reaches out to the elderly, marginalized, homebound, and handicapped of all faiths and to those who have no religious affiliation. Here for You works with all faith communities, civic organizations, and individuals by engaging, training, and equipping volunteers who are willing and ready to serve. Here for You’s volunteers ask nothing in return but the privilege of serving. If you have more questions about Here for You... You Matter, please contact me. We Are Called Join our faith community—and more than 14,000 Catholic communities across the United States in a Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl. During the 40 days of Lent, we will reflect on the challenge of global hunger and how it affects our human family. Use the resources attached with the Rice Bowl to guide you in prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Your donation will support the work of CRS in roughly 45 different countries each year. 25% of all donations to CRS Rice Bowl stay in the local diocese, supporting hunger and poverty alleviation efforts. Last year CCBT collected $753.06. Of this amount $188.26 will be distributed to local food pantries. CRS Rice Bowls will be handed out next week. The collection will conclude Easter Sunday. Please contact Marie Smith (315-591-1051) or Pam AuClair (315-529-2742) if you have any questions. To learn more about CRS Rice Bowl visit https://www.crsricebowl.org/about

From the desk of Fr. Walter
My Dear People,

Last week we noted that biblical and Christian prudence is more than caution, but wisdom, helping us to know the best means to live out our Catholic Faith in the practical day-to-day circumstances and challenges that make up ‘real life’. It is the Holy Spirit Himself Who gives us this supernatural aid, making us see things, not only in a human and natural way, but in the light of heaven. In other words, prudence makes us act according to the guiding principle of ordering and organizing our choices so that they lead us to, and not away from the path of salvation. And when several good things are possible, prudence makes us see and select the best among them.

Understanding why we need God’s gift of prudence is part of understanding ourselves. Life is not a series of isolated and separated choices, each made in a sort of psychological “no man’s land”. Every choice we make carries with it the weight and force of the choices before it. For example, if I’m presented with a delicious slice of chocolate cake, my decision to eat it will be largely influenced by what I’ve done in the past. If I only partake when I think it would be a good idea considering my overall diet and health, then I can more easily do what would be best. But if I always indulge whenever sweets of any sort are put before me, then the weight of my past choices heavily moves me to eat the cake, even if I shouldn’t at that moment for whatever reason. Of course, far less morally neutral or harmless examples could be given to demonstrate how past choices influence present ones. This is not to say, note it well, that we are not free. We are. But if we habitually make poor choices, then we are “less free” to choose what is ultimately best in each moment.

Like human relationships, our relationship with Christ is lived out in the thousand small things of ordinary life. We need to consistently and repeatedly choose what makes this relationship stronger, as opposed to what weakens it, or kills it. Prudence helps us do exactly that. But let me be more practical! Lent is coming up, which means another chance to realistically examine what needs to improve, change or increase in our spiritual life. It’s easy to “give up” something small, like candy, and ignore the big problems which actually weaken, harm or destroy our union with Jesus. Sometimes we can have ‘secret sins’ which are causing real harm; maybe a lack of generosity or lack of commitment to living our Faith 100% is holding us back. Whatever it may be, prudence helps us both identify obstacles, and guides us to effectively overcome them.

It is never too late to make ‘more prudent’ choices, because God never gives up on us. Be smart, God’s way, and ask Him for prudence. Build your spiritual life on rock, not on sand.

Maintaining an Attitude of Gratitude

The first Corporal Work of Mercy is to feed the hungry. This year’s food campaign was a great success. Three local food pantries benefited from the generous donations from all of you. We served the Fair Haven Blessing Box, Red Creek Community Food Cupboard and Wolcott Presbyterian Church Food Pantry. In addition, $188.26 will be shared between the Red Creek and Wolcott Food Pantries, which is the 25% our parish gets back from the total amount of money from our CRS Rice Bowl collection. The Fair Haven Blessing Box is not in the position to receive monetary donations currently, but they welcome ANY donations of food or toiletries throughout the year. The Blessing Box is located to the right of the Village Offices on Cayuga Street in Fair Haven. Just put your donation in the box. A local Girl Scout troop is building a new Blessing Box as a service project. Repeatedly, Jesus tells us through his words and actions to care about people’s physical needs. We are all doing just that! Thank you very much for your support. ~Pam AuClair and Marie Smith
