an hour with the Lord.

Noah Foro-Air Force, Bryan Wetzel-Air Force
Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our times of need, and give them peace.
I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.
AMEN

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
By the power of God, cast into hell Satan,
And all the evil spirits,
Who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

... You visited Me...
Here for You... You Matter!
Here for You is a new outreach program which aims to connect willing, trained volunteers with Wayne County residents who are isolated due to age, illness, or disability. Here for You strives to discover those who are isolated and who have needs which are not being met by family, friends, or agencies. Here for You provides training, guidance, and support to volunteers who will go out to the homebound and isolated to offer them support and to enable them to connect with other organizations and agencies as well. Here for You ensures that volunteers have a proper background screening and Safe Training as is appropriate in their work with vulnerable adults. Here for You provides opportunities for the volunteers to gather on a regular basis for support, networking, training, and the sharing of best practices. Here for You reaches out to the elderly, marginalized, homebound, and handicapped of all faiths and to those who have no religious affiliation. Here for You works with all faith communities, civic organizations, and individuals by engaging, training, and equipping volunteers who are willing and ready to serve. Here for You’s volunteers ask nothing in return but the privilege of serving. If you have more questions about Here for You... You Matter, please contact me. From the desk of Fr. Walter
My Dear People,
For the last two weeks we have been thinking about how much we need prudence to live out our Faith in the practical, day-to-day circumstances of life. In contrast to mere indecision or caution, biblical and Christian prudence means both the wisdom to make good choices, and the resolution to carry them out. Prudence identifies the best means to the end. It gives us a supernatural ‘instinct’ which makes us both judge and act rightly. Christ often uses images in His parables to illustrate how those who follow Him must act wisely and deliberately if they are to gain eternal life. In this weekend’s Gospel, Our Lord says that if we would follow Him and attain heaven, our way of acting must transcend a purely human mode of justice - even to be perfect as God Himself is perfect! St. Paul has sharper words, saying that if anyone would be wise according to the standards of this world, he is a fool in God’s eyes. Both statements show how we cannot get by in the Christian life without the virtue of prudence. If Jesus tells us that we are to be “perfect as our heavenly Father is perfect”, if St Paul tells us “to become a fool so as to be wise for God”, we need some measure of how to practice these seemingly unreachable or impossible commands in the ‘real world’. God’s standards are very different than our own. His measure of loving is very different than ours, as is His way of loving. We need His grace and help to see as He does and act accordingly. We see things in a tiny, finite, and limited way, often bound to what is pleasurable or painful in the present moment. God sees the big picture, what will bring us to eternal glory with Him in heaven. Suffering, selfless service, chastity, humility, and obedience are not highly prized in modern culture, indeed they are rejected and dismissed. Jesus however presents them to us as priceless means of winning unending life. And yet, suffering itself is not valuable, but suffering in union with Jesus is. Prudence distinguishes between the two. We can never reach the perfection of God, and yet, when we receive Holy Communion, we possess the infinite merits of Jesus Christ, Who is present inside of us, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. We are at that moment and continue to be made “partakers of the divine nature” as St. Peter says. He uses this strong expression to describe the transformation of our human nature, that “purely human mode”, by divine grace. Christian prudence finds a means to fulfill practically this mysterious requirement. Ash Wednesday brings a sober reminder of our inevitable mortality and our need to live by the light of our Catholic Faith at all times. We all need to be more ‘thoughtful’ and ‘deliberate’ in what we choose and how we act. So much of what we do doesn’t bring us or others closer to God. Prudence helps us remedy this. Ask for it. It will not make life harder or more burdensome, it will make it more effective. Be a fool for Christ, in other words, be wise! Fr. Walter
