Prayer for Our Troops

Sam Interlichia-Marines,
Noah Foro-Air Force,
Bryan Wetzal-Air Force
Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our times of need, and give them peace.
I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.
AMEN

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
By the power of God, cast into hell Satan,
And all the evil spirits,
Who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Third Sunday of Lent March 15, 2020

When he had seated himself with them to eat, he took bread, pronounced the blessing, then broke the bread and began to distribute it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him.

Luke 24:30-31

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

From the desk of Fr. Walter:

My Dear People,
In the first reading of Mass from Exodus, the Hebrews have been rescued from the slavery of the Egyptians and are wandering in the desert on their way to the Promised Land. But soon the scarcity of water makes them regret having followed Moses. God was calling them to embrace their true, spiritual identity and mission in Him, but this would entail looking at things from a spiritual perspective, not only a physical one. It meant trusting God's plan and way for them which also involved sacrifice. Alas, they were willing to return to their captors in Egypt because that, at least, was familiar and gave an illusion of safety. The Gospel scene of Christ with the Samaritan woman at the well is so rich in meaning that many important lessons can be uncovered. Let me bring out one. Christ is speaking of the living water of grace, while the woman is looking for a source of ordinary water which is more easily accessible than the deep well she draws from daily. But soon she takes the bait and sees that something greater is at stake. In the first case, the people 'just don't get it'. Their hard and blind hearts quickly return to the physical comforts of their life of spiritual and physical slavery under the Egyptians, from which God had miraculously rescued them. They wander in the desert for 40 years, not because the trip is so long, but because they refuse to trust, obey, and embrace God's plan. In the case of the Samaritan woman, Our Lord calls her out bluntly on her sinful life, and while for a few moments she resists, she 'takes the plunge', and is willing to let go of both her own ideas and sins, and believe what Christ is offering her. She even becomes an apostle for her entire village! Far too frequently we all resist 'taking the plunge' and following God's plan for a deeper, truer, better life in Him. So often we prefer to remain in a sort of spiritual slavery, to keep the comforts of a pagan culture around us, a modern day Egypt, rather than letting Our Lord challenge us to see things His way, which might cost, but which will ultimately free us. So often, a small sacrifice makes a huge difference! But we have to trust that God's way, the Church's way, the Gospel's way, Christ's way, will make us happier. The Hebrews wandered in the desert for 40 years, the Samaritan woman was transformed in a few moments and brought others to Jesus within an hour. The difference is trust, courage, and willingness to make a sacrifice. This Lent we have the choice: wander in the desert indefinitely and lament the comforts of Egypt or follow Jesus in a radical but life changing way. Let me give a helpful hint: the Promised Land is closer than you think.
Fr Walter
