Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our times of need, and give them peace.
I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.
AMEN

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,

by the power of God, cast into hell
Satan, and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

 Currently the state of New York is permitting religious gatherings of 10 people or less. Daily Mass resumes immediately at St. Mary Magdalene. We are also adding a weekday evening Mass on Tuesdays at 6 pm, followed by Exposition. The parish, with guidance from the diocese, is in the process of determining how Sunday Masses will be restored.

Please note St. Thomas in Red Creek is open Sundays from 8:30 to 10:30 am and St. Mary Magdalene is open from 10:30 am until noon.

My Dear People,

Having passed through the mysteries of the birth, suffering, death, resurrection and ascension of Our Savior, and having been given the gift of the Holy Spirit last week at Pentecost, we now ascend to the highest point of our Faith, the mystery of God’s own inner life and identity: the Holy Trinity. The ultimate revelation of revelations, God in three divine Persons, equal to each other, distinct, yet one and the same God.

The Mystery of the Holy Trinity is just that- a mystery, in the fullest sense possible. It is one that we must accept on God’s own word of truth. We must receive this treasure of God’s revelation of Himself as the gift to us that it is. He loves us and wants to share His life with us forever in heaven, and so He gives us a glimpse of it even here and now by telling us who He is. But unlike the events of Christ’s life, it is very hard for us to ‘imagine’ or picture the mystery of the Trinity. We can certainly grasp certain aspects which are real, like each Person is God as much as the other, and we can pray to each Person in a special way, but we cannot enter into what the life of God as Trinity means as easily as we can other parts of our Faith. This is normal.

However just because this beautiful mystery can appear more ‘abstract’ does not mean we have to love it or appreciate it less. There are many things we can’t understand in life, and yet still appreciate them and value them deeply. One of the things that can help us ‘approach’ this appreciation and love of the Trinity is to think of how happy God is within Himself by the unspeakable love between the three Persons. God is an infinite ocean of happiness, the Father knows the Son and the Son knows the Father, in knowing each other they love each other, and this Love is itself a Person, the Holy Spirit. When we feel alone, or isolated, we ought to recall the truth that God wants us to join Him in this ocean of joy and happiness forever in the glory of eternal life. We often think of being reunited with our family members and friends who have died, which is good, but the chief delight of heaven is being immersed in the ecstasy of love which is God Himself. The company of our beloved dead becomes a joy because of being together with them in God.

As soon as we ascend to the inner sanctum of God by thinking of the Trinity, we immediately recall that our ‘entrance’ to it is the Person of Jesus, and more precisely His Sacred Humanity. June is the month devoted to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and so, quite literally, the Sacred Heart is our gateway to the life of the Trinity. The Sacred Heart is not only the gateway, but also the ticket of admission and the directions. The human love of Jesus for us is what unites us to the divine love, Jesus is true God and true man, but we go to the divinity of Jesus through His humanity.

In this time of still continuing isolation for many of us, when in spite of better weather and small restorations of normalcy we are still unable to be completely ‘free’, we should return to the mystery of the life of happiness and companionship that awaits us if we are faithful. It is not only Our Lady and the saints, not only our family members and friends which make this companionship so happy, it is the companionship of God within Himself, the Persons of the Trinity. Heaven is God taking us into this embrace, or ‘hug’ if you will, within the Three Persons. We will never be alone because God is not alone, even were there no angels or saints. But in addition to this embrace, there are in fact many others who will join us in it, and who, in some mysterious way, make it even sweeter.

Heaven is not ‘pie in the sky’, it is the most real of realities, because it is the life of God and God is reality. This life is the Trinity. The door to this life is Jesus, especially His Sacred Heart which is open to us by the wound which pierced it on the Cross. His love for us is the key, ticket, and directions there all in one. The Father and the Holy Spirit are waiting for us with Him. Let us be faithful and get there, and remember we are not alone, because we have God. You may notice that so many statues of the Sacred Heart show Him with arms outstretched and open. Those arms are how we get to the Trinity. Those arms are how the Trinity gets to us.

Fr Walter
