Prayer for Our Troops
 Sam Interlichia — Marines
 Noah Foro — Air Force
 Bryan Wetzal — Air Force
 Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands.
 Protect them as they protect us.
 Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our times of need, and give them peace.
 I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.
AMEN

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
 Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
 May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
 and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
 by the power of God, cast into hell
 Satan, and all the evil spirits,
 who prowl about the world
 seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Living in Grace through the Sacraments
Sacrament of Baptism. We share in your joy as we welcome the newest member of your family into God's family, the Church. Our Parish offers Baptism Preparation Program to parents, with godparents, who wish to share their faith with their child. To register, please call the Parish Office.
Sacrament of Reconciliation. Persevere on the journey to holiness: Say "No" to sin and "Yes" to God's love, mercy and forgiveness: Tuesdays at St. Mary Magdalene from 7 pm to 8 pm in the cry room or call the Parish Office to make an appointment.
Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Jesus continues his healing ministry through his Church. If you or any parishioner is ill at home, in the hospital or the nursing home, and desires to celebrate this sacrament of healing, call the Parish Office to schedule a visit.
Sacrament of the Eucharist. Ministry suspended until after the pandemic.
Sacrament of Confirmation. Our young parishioners who wish to prepare to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit in the sacrament of Confirmation must be enrolled in a 2 year preparation program in Religious Education. Adults must call the rectory.
Sacrament of Marriage. You and your fiancé are called to mirror the love of Jesus for his Church! Please contact the Parish Office at least six months before the intended date of your wedding so we can help you prepare for this wonderful sacrament of committed love.
Sacrament of Holy Orders. Do pray for vocations to the ordained priesthood and permanent diaconate. It is our common obligation to raise vocations—ordained, religious, married, single—in the Church. Now do you happen to know if and when our parish has produced an ordained priest for our diocese?
Are You a Visitor or a Newcomer? Welcome and we are glad you're here to worship with us!

Responsorial Psalm Ps. 89
R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.
 The promises of the LORD I will sing forever, through all generations my mouth shall proclaim your faithfulness.
 For you have said, "My kindness is established forever;"
 in heaven you have confirmed your faithfulness.
R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.
 Blessed the people who know the joyful shout;
 in the light of your countenance, O LORD, they walk.
 At your name they rejoice all the day,
 and through your justice they are exalted.
R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.
 You are the splendor of their strength,
 and by your favor our horn is exalted.
 For to the LORD belongs our shield,
 and the Holy One of Israel, our king.
R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

My Dear People,

This is my last bulletin article. I think everyone has learned by now that I have been transferred to St John of Rochester parish in Fairport to be the assistant priest there with Fr Peter Clifford. I ask for your prayers that God use me in whatever way He wants in my new assignment, just as I hope He has used me here to be His instrument. Thank you for all the good things you have done for me, may God Himself reward you for it.

One year has seemed a very short time to be with you, especially since three months of this year were under the quarantine when we did not see each other, apart from computer videos. As Fr Tedesche explained, priests are at the service of the Diocese. The Bishop, who is the chief Shepherd of all the souls under his care, places priests as needed in different places to share this task. The shortage of priests makes the Bishop's job of assigning priests to cover, even more challenging. He has many considerations in mind that we may often be unaware of. There are many moving parts to coordinate in a Diocese of 12 counties, both among the parishes and the priests themselves.

One year is very short, I know, but it is also a long time. What do I mean by this? I mean, God's time is different than ours. In a single instant He can change the world, and years upon years are but a single instant in His eyes. Most of you know I have a great devotion to St Joseph and have consecrated my vocation to the priesthood to him. I asked St Joseph, even before my ordination, that I would do the work he desired me to do in my first assignment. What that work is or was, I am not entirely sure, you may know better than me! What I do know is that God uses the smallest things to make a big difference. Whatever it is that St Joseph, (who is working for God obviously) wanted me to do with you and for you, I trust he has done. Whatever it is that St Joseph wanted me to receive from you, to learn from you, to grow from you, he has had his time to accomplish, even with my hard head! Priests need the people as much as people need to the priest. We need you because our identity and mission is to bring you closer to God and help you stay close to Him. We continue the mission and work of Jesus, take His place even, to do it. But we, (I) find God by serving you just as you find Him through us (me). A priest needs to get people to heaven in order to go there himself.

Life is short, in an 'instant' it will be done. Yet relationships with people, if they are joined in the love of Jesus, will never end. Let us be joined in the love of Jesus. Such bonds are forever.

Fr Walter

"The Community Clothing Center will remain closed throughout the summer due to Covid-19 and a directive from Catholic Charities. There will be no Backpack event this year. As we do continue to fill emergency needs and special requests, donations of clothes will still be gratefully accepted. If you have clothes to donate, contact Jill Lee at 315-744-4932 (cell). Thank you so much for all your support!"

The office for Blessed Trinity has been moved to 43 W. DeZeng St. Clyde. 315-902-4130. Mary DeLisio will be returning to work part time at the office starting the week of July 6th.
