Living in Grace through the Sacraments
Sacrament of Baptism. We share in your joy as we welcome the newest member of your family into God's family, the Church. Our Parish offers Baptism Preparation Program to parents, with godparents, who wish to share their faith with their child. To register, please call the Parish Office.
Sacrament of Reconciliation. Persevere on the journey to holiness: Say "No" to sin and "Yes" to God's love, mercy and forgiveness. St. Mary Magdalene in the Church Hall on Saturday evenings 3:30 to 4:15 PM, St. Jude's in the old Sacristy on Sunday morning from 7:20 to 7:50 AM, or please call the Parish Office to make an appointment.
Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Jesus continues his healing ministry through his Church. If you or any parishioner is ill at home, in the hospital or the nursing home, and desires to celebrate this sacrament of healing, call the Parish Office to schedule a visit.
Sacrament of the Eucharist. One of our priests will bring Communion during home visits or Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (communion ministers) can and may bring you Communion regularly. Call the Parish Office.
Sacrament of Confirmation. Our young parishioners who wish to prepare to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit in the sacrament of Confirmation must be enrolled in a 2 year preparation program in Religious Education. Adults must call the rectory.
Sacrament of Marriage. You and your fiancé are called to mirror the love of Jesus for his Church! Please contact the Parish Office at least six months before the intended date of your wedding so we can help you prepare for this wonderful sacrament of committed love.
Sacrament of Holy Orders. Do pray for vocations to the ordained priesthood and permanent diaconate. It is our common obligation to raise vocations—ordained, religious, married, single—in the Church. Now do you happen to know if and when our parish has produced an ordained priest for our diocese?
Are You a Visitor or a Newcomer? Welcome and we are glad you're here to worship with us!

Responsorial Psalm Ps. 85
R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.
 I will hear what God proclaims;
 the LORD — for he proclaims peace.
 Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him,
 glory dwelling in our land.
R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.
 Kindness and truth shall meet;
 justice and peace shall kiss.
 Truth shall spring out of the earth,
 and justice shall look down from heaven.
R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.
 The LORD himself will give his benefits;
 our land shall yield its increase.
 Justice shall walk before him,
 and prepare the way of his steps.
R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

My dear brothers and sisters,

It was around 2 am on Tuesday, July 14th, when a call from my father Michael woke me up from a sound sleep. My mother Margaret had taken a very bad fall, had sustained a serious head injury, and had been rushed to Strong Memorial Hospital. Five days later, she had passed away. Eight days later, I was celebrating her funeral Mass. A little over two weeks later, my father, brother and I were saying our goodbyes to my sister as she departed to fly back to Alaska. In this short period of time, much had happened and had come to an end: hospital visits, endless conversations with family, friends, doctors, and trusted advisors concerning difficult end-of-life decisions, funeral planning, a funeral, a burial, the redistribution of my mother's personal property, and much more.

Yes, in this short period of time, much had happened and much came to an end. However, some things still remain: sorrow and grief in our family, especially on the part of my father who misses his dear wife of 54 years, a large empty family house in Ontario that we are debating whether or not to sell, the memories of the day and the moment life support was removed from my mother, an experience that, as my sister said at the funeral, had "changed our family forever."

And yet, other things remain: the life and love that my mother gave me and my family, her example as a good person and a good Catholic, and her prayers and spiritual presence. For example, as I write this, I can see to my right, laying on my desk, my mother's prayer book that I will use and cherish for the rest of my life until, Lord willing, I am reunited with her again in heaven. In something so simple as this little prayer book, she remains with me.

And something else remains: the overwhelming love and care of extended family, friends, brother priests, parish staff, and you my parishioners. Your sympathy cards, texts, emails, oral communications, hugs, meals and everything else have been so amazing and life-giving. My family and I can't thank you enough. Up until this point, I have ministered to you all in your many losses and experiences of bereavement. I will continue to do so. However, I will do so now as one who is a fellow mourner, able all the more so to identify with you and be one with you in your sorrows. And in this communion, together we will find hope and peace. Many things pass away on this earth, and yet truth, goodness, and love remain. In this love, we remain united with each other and with our beloved departed whom we can't see anymore but whom we will one day see again. "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord." "And let perpetual light shine upon them." "May they rest in peace." "Amen." "May the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace." "Amen."

Thank you,

Fr. David Tedesche

On Thursday, August 27th, we will begin taking Mass requests for the year 2021. As always, requests will be honored on a first come, first served basis. Please contact Mary DeLisio at the office: 315-902-4130 or Mary.DeLisio@dor.org.
