Praver for Our Troops

Sam Interlichia — Marines Noah Foro — Air Force Bryan Wetzel — Air Force

Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our times of need, and give them peace. I ask this in the name of Jesus. Our Lord and Savior. AMEN

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

	September 13, 2020 Responsorial Psalm Ps. 103 R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.
	Bless the LORD, O my soul; and all my being, bless his holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits. R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.
	He pardons all your iniquities, heals all your ills. He redeems your life from destruction, crowns you with kindness and compassion. R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.
	He will not always chide, nor does he keep his wrath forever. Not according to our sins does he deal with us, nor does he requite us according to our crimes. R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.
	For as the heavens are high above the earth, so surpassing is his kindness toward those who fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far has he put our transgressions from us. R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

Family Promise Need

Due to COVID, Family Promise volunteers are mainly being asked to help prepare meals. Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity is now part of the "Eastern Wayne County Catholic Cluster" along with St. Michael's in Newark and St. Joseph the Worker Parish. We would like to develop a list of parishioners who would be interested in being called upon to share the task of preparing meals for families that are being hosted. This would enable many to serve on a rotating basis so that all have a chance to bless this most worthy of causes. If you are called and are not available to help at the time of need there is no pressure! There is a signup sheet at the back of both churches. If you already filled out the bulletin insert would you please sign our sheet too. This will ensure that we don't miss anyone who is interested in serving. You could also email or phone Marie Smith (mlssmith1441@gmail.com; 315-591-1051) or Jill Lee (jilltracylee@rochester.rr.com; 315-315-744-4932).

Inspiring Women: Celebrating Their Legacy

Feminists Choosing Life of NY is celebrating the Centennial of the Women's Suffrage Movement on September 26 from 6:00-8:00 PM at Club 86 in Geneva. Their event is named "Inspiring Women: Celebrating Their Legacy". Guest speaker will be Serrin Foster who is the president of Feminists for Life of America. Feminists Choosing Life of New York and Feminists for Life of America (FFL) are sister coalitions. Both non-profits recognize "that abortion is a reflection that our society has failed to meet the needs of women." Both organizations recognize the need to "systematically eliminat[e]... the root causes that drive women to abortion — primarily [the] lack of practical resources and support." A pro-life feminist mantra is "Women Deserve Better than Abortion," a term trademarked by FFL. As clearly stated on FFL's website: "Like Susan B. Anthony and other early American suffragists, today's pro-life feminists envision a better world in which no woman would be driven by desperation to abortion: A world in which pregnancy, motherhood, and birth motherhood are accepted and supported; campuses and workplaces that support mothers in practical ways and do not force them to choose between their education or career plans and their children; a society that supports the role of mothers, values the role of fathers, and helps parents provide both financial and emotional support for their children; and a culture in which parents are respected, whether they decide to stay at home or return to work."

Dinner choices are Baked Chicken/Seasoned, Roasted and Falls Off the Bone; Grilled Stuffed Portabella/Spinach + Farrow; or Grilled Salmon/Pan seared Faroe Island Salmon. Reservations are $75.00 with limited seating because of Covid 19. Reservations, program ads (no political ads) and sponsorship opportunities are available by contacting info@flcnv.org, calling Michelle Sterlace-Accorsi, executive director of FCLNY, at 716-864-1454, or contacting Kathy Peters at kpeters6@rochester.rr.com at 315-539-8006.

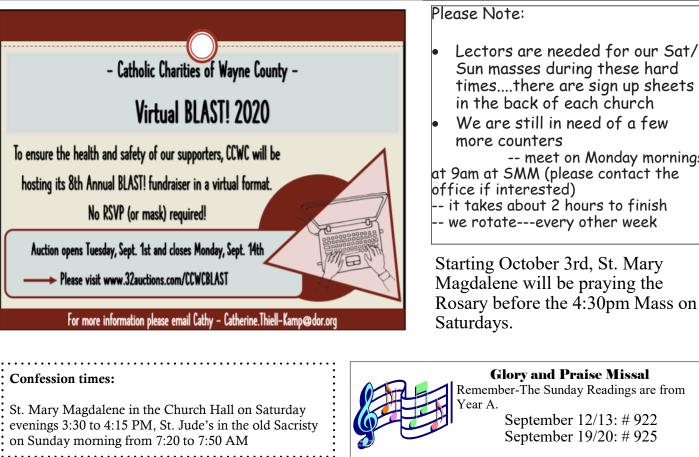

On Thursday, August 27th, we will begin taking Mass requests for the year 2021. As always, requests will be honored on a first come, first served basis. Please contact Mary DeLisio at the office: 315-902-4130 or Mary.DeLisio@dor.org. (We still have many openings for this year.)

"The Community Clothing Center will remain closed throughout the summer due to Covid-19 and a directive from Catholic Charities. There will be no Backpack event this year. As we do continue to fill emergency needs and special requests, donations of clothes will still be gratefully accepted. If you have clothes to donate, contact Jill Lee at 315-744-4932 (cell). Thank you so much for all your support!"

This is a good week to imagine how much we are like Jesus' disciples. We clearly want to be his follower, and we do follow him. The humbling reality is that we are inconsistent. At the very time that Jesus is telling us that he wants us to find ourselves by losing ourselves, we are too often being competitive and trying to be on top somehow. Fortunately, he keeps telling us about the real meaning of discipleship. Paul lays it all out in this week's first readings. The parable of the sower is quite helpful this week. We can imagine ourselves as each one of the soils Jesus describes.

Each morning, as soon as we can after waking up, perhaps associated with some automatic behavior like putting on slippers or a robe or getting a cup of coffee, we begin the day in the presence of our Lord. We can get into the habit of greeting our Lord, "Good morning, Lord. Thank you for this day." Even if we didn't have a good night's sleep and we are waking up fairly tired, this habit can part of our routine. Naming our desire for the day can become the way we begin our day with the Lord. Repeating it, with more details, as we encounter the people and responsibilities of our day, will deepen our relationship with the Lord. Brief conversations (what we normally call "prayers") sustain the connection all day.

In one circumstance this week, I might say, "Lord, here I am being that very hard ground. Please get through to me in the part of me that is still 'receptive soil.'" Another day, I might catch myself trying to make myself look good and I can say, "Dear Jesus, your reminder helps me right here. Let me be a servant in this situation, with these people - forgiving, listening, compassion and freer." Sometime this week we might encounter someone who needs us to be like Jesus - healing something that is broken, or even deadly and we can say, "Lord, let me do your will, imitate your faith in God here. Thank you for being with me."
