Responsorial Psalm Ps. 145

R. The Lord is near to all who call upon him.

Every day will I bless you,
and I will praise your name forever and ever.
Great is the LORD and highly to be praised;
his greatness is unsearchable.
R. The Lord is near to all who call upon him.

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness.
The LORD is good to all
and compassionate toward all his works.
R. The Lord is near to all who call upon him.

The LORD is just in all his ways
and holy in all his works.
The LORD is near to all who call upon him,
to all who call upon him in truth.
R. The Lord is near to all who call upon him.

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God, cast into hell
Satan, and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Prayer for Our Troops
Sam Interlichia — Marines
Noah Foro — Air Force
Bryan Wetzel — Air Force

Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our times of need, and give them peace.
I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.
AMEN

The Divine Mercy Chaplet will be prayed on the First Sundays of every month beginning October 4, 2020, at 3pm in St. John the Evangelist church, 114 Sodus St., Clyde, NY.

Every other month the Chaplet will be sung.

Let us come together to pray to Our Lord that He would bless us with His gracious Mercy and help us to bring mercy and peace to the world.

Family Promise Need

Due to COVID, Family Promise volunteers are mainly being asked to help prepare meals. Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity is now part of the "Eastern Wayne County Catholic Cluster" along with St. Michael's in Newark and St. Joseph the Worker Parish. We would like to develop a list of parishioners who would be interested in being called upon to share the task of preparing meals for families that are being hosted. This would enable many to serve on a rotating basis so that all have a chance to bless this most worthy of causes. If you are called and are not available to help at the time of need there is no pressure! There is a sign-up sheet at the back of both churches. If you already filled out the bulletin insert would you please sign our sheet too. This will ensure that we don't miss anyone who is interested in serving. You could also email or phone Marie Smith (mlssmith1441@gmail.com; 315-591-1051) or Jill Lee (jilltracylee@rochester.rr.com; 315-315-744-4932).

Inspiring Women: Celebrating Their Legacy

Feminists Choosing Life of NY is celebrating the Centennial of the Women's Suffrage Movement on September 26 from 6:00-8:00 PM at Club 86 in Geneva. Their event is named "Inspiring Women: Celebrating Their Legacy". Guest speaker will be Serrin Foster who is the president of Feminists for Life of America. Feminists Choosing Life of New York and Feminists for Life of America (FFL) are sister coalitions. Both non-profits recognize "that abortion is a reflection that our society has failed to meet the needs of women." Both organizations recognize the need to "systematically eliminat[e]... the root causes that drive women to abortion — primarily [the] lack of practical resources and support." A pro-life feminist mantra is "Women Deserve Better than Abortion," a term trademarked by FFL. As clearly stated on FFL's website: "Like Susan B. Anthony and other early American suffragists, today's pro-life feminists envision a better world in which no woman would be driven by desperation to abortion: A world in which pregnancy, motherhood, and birth motherhood are accepted and supported; campuses and workplaces that support mothers in practical ways and do not force them to choose between their education or career plans and their children; a society that supports the role of mothers, values the role of fathers, and helps parents provide both financial and emotional support for their children; and a culture in which parents are respected, whether they decide to stay at home or return to work."

Dinner choices are Baked Chicken/Seasoned, Roasted and Falls Off the Bone; Grilled Stuffed Portabella/Spinach + Farrow; or Grilled Salmon/Pan seared Faroe Island Salmon. Reservations are $75.00 with limited seating because of Covid 19. Reservations, program ads (no political ads) and sponsorship opportunities are available by contacting info@fclny.org , calling Michelle Sterlace-Accorsi, executive director of FCLNY, at 716-864-1454, or contacting Kathy Peters at kpeters6@rochester.rr.com at 315-539-8006.

St. Mary Magdalene

Prayer Reflection

Every day of every week, we have the precious opportunity to get to know Jesus more intimately and to become more attracted to him, with the result that we grow in a desire to be with him more and to be more like him. Few of us have the wonderful opportunity to follow the special vocation of becoming contemplatives, but we can be more contemplative in our everyday lives. This can happen for us, not by "leaving the world" but by letting our Lord have a place in our very busy daily world. If we keep developing the habit of being contemplatives in the midst of our days, we will indeed be blessed to find intimacy with God in our everyday lives. It doesn't take more time. It just takes focus.

From the first few moments of our day, and in very brief conscious moments throughout the day, we can speak with our Lord. We can notice what is going on in within us - our fears, our fatigue, our joys and our sorrows - and tell our Lord what we are feeling and ask for the graces we need.

This week, we can be conscious of the invitation of Sunday's gospel to be less judgmental and more aware of how generously and undeservedly we are loved by God. In a very brief moment, we might ask our Lord to give us the grace to share the light, the gifts we've been given, generously.

On another day, we might find ourselves doing what the Lord has asked us to do, but tempted out of our fear and anxiety to "take too much with us," in the sense of not really trusting that our Lord will give us what we need for the journey. This would be a great day for some "friend to friend" conversation with our Lord, before the challenge, in moments during it, and after it is completed, expressing our gratitude.

We can grow in freedom by not being afraid to ask our Lord about anything. The answer surprisingly comes in our own inner peace and trust. By Sunday, we can find ourselves judging others less, and more freely and consciously choosing to turn away from occasions of sin.

Catholics Care. Catholics Vote. Participate in political life.

In their statement on Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the U.S. Catholic bishops remind Catholics about the call to participate in political life. "In the Catholic tradition," they write, "responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation" (no. 13). Visit www.faithfulcitizenship.org today to read the statement, watch videos, and access other great resources to help us build a better society and world.

For reflection: What is the connection between our faith and the desire to change the world for the better?
