Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
 Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
 May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
 and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
 by the power of God, cast into hell
 Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Prayer for Our Troops
 Sam Interlichia — Marines
 Noah Foro — Air Force
 Bryan Wetzel — Air Force

Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands.
 Protect them as they protect us.
 Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our times of need, and give them peace.
 I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.
AMEN

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

 Psalm 128

Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Blessed are you who fear the LORD,
 who walk in his ways!
 For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork;
 blessed shall you be, and favored.

Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
 in the recesses of your home;
 Your children like olive plants around your table.

Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD.
 The LORD bless you from Zion:
 may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
 all the days of your life.
Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

From the desk of Deacon Kiley:

The Church year comes to an end next week, the Feast of Christ the King. Then we will hear the glorious story of the Last Judgement when Christ himself will separate the sheep from the goats, the righteous from the unrighteous. But, today's first reading and psalm remind us of the blessings of the righteous in this life – a worthy wife, children, a godly family, a peaceful home. We are asked to look first at the wonderful blessings we receive even in this life. Not even a whisper of the last judgement. But then St. Paul warns us, “the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night. When people are saying, ‘Peace and security,’ then sudden disaster comes upon them.... Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.”

In the Gospel, Jesus himself warns us of the fate of the unworthy servant – of the servant who, even though he has been given the gift of grace sufficient for eternal life, has buried it and has chosen to live a life in fear and distrust of God rather than in joy and in service. Not only that man but each of us gets way more than what we need to live long and prosper. More important than the blessings of this life is the gift of God’s grace that enables us to live forever. God’s grace is a free gift, for he desires that everyone would be saved. That’s what his love did for us on the Cross. That’s what has been poured out for us by the power of his Resurrection.

What these readings today call us to do is to never forget to have an eternal perspective. Our readings challenge us to never get so focused on this world and its things its diversions, its pleasure and, its politics that we forget that this is not our lasting home and we are called to a greater life than what we have here below. Do not lose the eternal perspective. Do not lose the eternal perspective. How the Lord longs to say to you, “Well done, my good and faithful servant. ... Come, share your master's joy.” Do not lose the eternal perspective for the Lord desires to pour out his blessings upon us both in this world and, most especially, in the next. God bless you all!
