Easter is Coming!

Easter Sunday, the holiest day of the year, is only a few weeks away. Mass at St John's will be at 10:30 am and we want to make sure everyone is able to be seated. We especially want to make sure that families are able to sit together so we are asking that everyone planning to come to the 10:30 am Mass would please call the office at 315-902-4130 by Monday, March 29th to make reservations. In this way we can make a seating plan that will accommodate family members who would like to be seated together. This will help to make sure that people coming to Mass on Easter will not find out at the last minute that they cannot sit with their family. Let us all celebrate the Lord's Resurrection!

PLEASE NOTE

reservation to attend Easter Masses at Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity.

We are still looking for lectors for our 4:30

Our Lady of Fatima urges us to pray the Rosary daily to obtain peace in the world.

One Year Later

It is hard to believe that a year ago this week, the bishop put out the decree that all Churches in the diocese were to close their doors to the public indefinitely. "Indefinitely" ended up being about three months, but things are still not what they used to be. Of course, it wasn't only in the Church that things got turned upside down. It was also this time last year that everything in society changed. We learned new words like "social distancing" and "zoom" meetings. Masks became mandatory everywhere, and isolation became the norm.

One year later, and unfortunately, we are still facing many of the same problems. This past year has been one of the most difficult any of us has ever faced. Hundreds of thousands have died during this pandemic, and just about everyone knows someone who has contracted the virus. There is not one person who hasn't been affected by this pandemic. Mental health issues stemming from loneliness and isolation have hit many during this past year.

And yet, despite everything, life continues on. All of us have been doing the best we can to carry on and live as normal a life as we can under the circumstances. Nowhere is this better exemplified than in our Churches. We may have to wear masks and be socially distant from each other; we might not be able to have servers and ministers, but we still come together every day and celebrate the Eucharist. It is a reminder that even in the dark times, the Lord continues to be with us.

With the number of new cases going down a little bit, and with more people having access to the vaccine, there does seem to be some light at the end of this dark tunnel. In spite of the struggles, I am so thankful that our communities continue to come together to celebrate and to worship. This week, we will be celebrating the feast days of St. Patrick and St. Joseph, two of the great saints in our Church's history. In less than a month, we will once again be celebrating Jesus' Passion, Death, and Resurrection, and this year, we will be able to celebrate in the Church.

It has been a difficult year for all of us, but I cannot thank all of you enough for keeping your faith strong in the face of such adversity. May we always remember that our Lord has been and will always be watching over all of us. I will continue to pray for all of you, that you continue to stay safe and be well during these trying times. God willing, we will make it through to the other side very soon.

A Prayer

by Cardinal John Henry Newman

Dear Jesus, help me to spread Your fragrance wherever I go. Flood my soul with Your spirit and life. Penetrate and possess my whole being so utterly, that my life may only be a radiance of Yours. Shine through me, and be so in me that every soul I come in contact with may feel Your presence in my soul. Let them look up and see no longer me, but only Jesus! Oh Lord! Stay with me and then I will begin to shine as You do; so to shine as to be a light to others. The light, O Jesus, will be all from You; none of it will be mine. It will be You shining on others through me. Let me thus praise You in the way You love best, by shining on those around me. Let me preach You without preaching, not by words but by my example, by the catching force, the sympathetic influence of what I do, the evident fullness of the love my heart bears to You. Amen.

REFLECTION. Mary meditated on all she had come to know through reading, listening, and observing.

She grew in faith, increased in merits, and was more consumed by the fire of charity.
