Easter is Coming!

Easter Sunday, the holiest day of the year, is only a few weeks away. Mass at St John's will be at 10:30 am and we want to make sure everyone is able to be seated. We especially want to make sure that families are able to sit together so we are asking that everyone planning to come to the 10:30 am Mass would please call the office at 315-902-4130 by Monday, March 29th to make reservations. In this way we can make a seating plan that will accommodate family members who would like to be seated together. This will help to make sure that people coming to Mass on Easter will not find out at the last minute that they cannot sit with their family. Let us all celebrate the Lord's Resurrection!

PLEASE NOTE

You will not be required to have a ticket/reservation to attend Easter Masses at Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity.

We are still looking for lectors for our 4:30 pm Saturday Masses.

A NOTE FROM

AN ANONYMOUS GUEST AT FAMILY PROMISE

Dear Volunteers,

Even though I want to remain anonymous as a past family that was in the program, it doesn't mean that I am not thankful.
It was so hard to accept things we needed from complete strangers. But I need to offer thanks on behalf of all the moms that felt the way I did. I want to thank everyone who donated food, laundry soap, cosmetics, etc. We greatly appreciated it.
Things that seem small were huge to us families that were in need. It took the burden of worry away just to know that we would be able to have clean clothes or a meal on the table for our kids. It warms our hearts to know that people haven't forgotten about us. Even through these hard and troubling COVID times you still think of us.

So THANK YOU from ALL the Past & Future FAMILY PROMISE FAMILIES.

St. Mary Magdalene is in need of Sacristans for the daily (Monday and Friday) and every other week-end (Saturday) Masses. Won't you prayerfully consider giving some of your time to prepare the sacred spaces for the liturgy celebrations?

Thank you for your consideration. ## A Note to all Parishioners

After Easter, the Wednesday 6 pm Mass at St. John's will be followed by 1 hour of personal prayer until 7:30 pm (without Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament) for anyone who wishes to remain after Mass or for those who work and would like to come during that time.

Every first Sunday of the month, beginning at 2 pm at St. John the Evangelist Church, 114 Sodus St., Clyde there will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and a period of Adoration followed by the recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet and concluding with Benediction.

There will be no First Sunday Adoration on Easter Sunday. Watch the bulletin for information regarding Divine Mercy Sunday (2nd Sunday of Easter).

Our Lady of Fatima urges us to pray the Rosary daily to obtain peace in the world.

From Deacon Greg

How is Lent going this year? I think that question can make most of us wince. It's so easy to just slip into old patterns or to find excuses for making exceptions to certain practices we have undertaken. Maybe a couple of real life stories could help.

Years ago, I worked in a factory in Clyde and had a boss who was a good, Catholic man. One Monday, towards the end of Lent, he came in and told me how on Sunday he had been kneeling in prayer after Communion and was suddenly hit by a disturbing question: "What have I done for Lent?" He said that he realized that he had let Lent slide that year and it was really bothering him. He felt ashamed and humbled.

The other story involves a college friend. One of the fellows I ate meals with in the college cafeteria, he too was a good, observant Catholic and made sure everyone knew it. At the beginning of Lent one year, he somewhat loudly announced, "I'm giving up dessert for Lent." The rest of us guys were like, "Uh huh!" Not finding us to be particularly impressed, he went on to tell us what a wonderful sacrifice it was. Well, the next day, when we sat down together, he had a bowl of fruit cocktail which he immediately began eating. He proudly announced that he was eating it before dinner so that it would be an appetizer instead of a dessert! So, for the rest of Lent, he ate his dessert — I mean his "appetizer" — before dinner instead of afterwards!

To me, these stories seem like the parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector and they're a good Lenten lesson for us. If you find yourself in either story, I hope it's the first one because it's not too late to make a change. There is certainly time to find opportunities for more fervent prayer. Time to come to the Stations of the Cross, to add a Rosary or a Mercy Chaplet to your day, to come to daily Mass. Or — a good one — to just pray with a more determined fervor and not just recite the words. There's time to skip those between-meal snacks or to break a persistent habit. There's time to make a generous, sacrificial offering to the poor, to the missions, to the parish, or to a needy neighbor. Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. The Big Three. There's time for all of them. What isn't there time for? Eating your dessert before dinner and bragging about it!

May your Holy Lent bring you a Joyous Easter!
