Living in Grace through the Sacraments

Baptism: We share in your joy as we welcome the newest member of your family into God's family, the Church. Please call the Parish Office and we will set up a time to meet with you about your child's Baptism.

Marriage: You and your fiancé are called to mirror the love of Jesus for His Church. Please call the Parish Office at least six months before the intended date of your wedding so we can help prepare you for this wonderful sacrament of committed love.

Anointing of the Sick: Jesus continues His healing ministry through His Church. If you or someone you know is very weakened due to age or illness or is preparing for a medical procedure and would like to receive this sacrament, please call the Emergency Phone Line at 585-208-2433. You can also find this number on our website by going to "Sacraments" and then clicking on "Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick". In addition, it can be found under "Latest News".

SACRISTANS

"Others were appointed to take care of the utensils and all the sacred vessels, as well as the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense, and the spices." -1 Chronicles 9:29, NAB

St. Mary Magdalene is in need of Sacristans for the daily (Monday and Friday) and every other week-end (Saturday) Masses. Won't you prayerfully consider giving some of your time to prepare the sacred spaces for the liturgy celebrations?

Thank you for your consideration. For more information, please visit the parish website: <http://www.ccblessedtrinity.org/Parish/Ministries/LiturgicalMinistries/Sacristans/ParishGuidelinesforSacristans>, and contact Eileen Bielemeier at 315-594-2385.

We are still looking for lectors for our 4:30 pm Saturday Masses.
Sign up sheets are in the back of the church at St. Mary Magdalene's.

He is Risen!

Dear Parishioners and Guests,

Happy Easter! Alleluia!

Today we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

This feast celebrates the victory of Jesus over sin and death. It is such an important feast that it is extended for a season of fifty days.

Easter is about the past, yes, but also about the present and the future. It is a feast that commemorates that first Easter morning, centuries ago when Jesus rose from the darkness of the tomb, defying the power of death. He entered a new kind of life. By His resurrection, he promises everyone who follows him that the darkness of Good Friday, whatever form it might take, can be changed into Easter morning. The things that can hurt us, indeed, anything that is wrong with our lives or with our world, can be turned away, or turned around when we believe in the power of His resurrection.

For Christians, celebrating Easter means more than simply being a good person, believing in God's love. It means sharing that love with one's family, and beyond that, with one's community of faith. We come to church to renew Easter and to share our faith with our fellow parishioners. To all those who do this every Sunday, thank you for sharing your presence and your faith. To all who may be with us for the first time, or for the holiday, please feel welcome to be with us more often.

On this solemn day of the triumph of Life over death, of Light over darkness, and of hope over despair, we would like to wish you, our parishioners and guests, the awareness of being gifted by God and redeemed by the power of His resurrection. We are all called to do great things because we have been saved to do good things. Let this be our constant challenge.

To all of you, your families, relatives, and friends, we wish you a blessed Easter, full of peace and joy. Praised be our Risen Lord!

Father Felician

ASCENSION PRESS Bible-in-a-Year Podcast

- Do you want to know about the Bible?
- Are you willing to dedicate some time to reading it? Well, a few of us ladies from our Book Group are doing so and we are trying to spread the word. Join us at Ascension's Bible in a Year podcast (Ascension Press) and check it out...with Fr. Mike Schmitz and Catholic resources!
- You can download and/or view the daily readings and psalms to read along with Fr. Mike.
- After every session which starts off about 24 minutes long or at times shorter, Fr. Mike says a prayer followed by a little reflection. He is easy to listen to.
- You can start on Day 1 which is the beginning of Genesis and play catch up or you can jump on any other day to begin...it won't take much time to catch up!

This is at YOUR own pace.

For more information go to www.ascensionpress.com or text on your cell 33777 and receive updates and the Bible Reading Plan in your email; also on Facebook at Ascension and view more of Fr. Mike's podcast.

This past year, we had a lot of challenges for all of us.

WE need to do something to stay grounded in Christ. To trust in HIM and not get overwhelmed by the things of this world. So-o-o maybe we can take this journey together!!!

If you have any questions/concerns or need to talk, you may contact Kathy DeMass or Susie Gallo.

Bless the Lord, O My Soul

Prayer Before a Crucifix

Behold, O kind and gentle Jesus, I kneel before you and pray that you would impress upon my heart the virtues of faith, hope, and charity, with true repentance for my sins and a firm purpose of amendment. At the same time, with sorrow I meditate on your five precious wounds, having in mind the words which David spoke in prophecy: "They have pierced my hands and my feet. I can count all my bones" (Ps 22).

Catholic Ministries Appeal

I'm doing the Bible in a Year with Father Mike Schmitz. When we were reading from Exodus, chapter 35, when the Israelites were building the Tabernacle, I was amazed by the generosity of the people. "Take from among you an offering to the Lord; let whoever is of a generous heart bring the Lord's offering..." Exodus 35.5 'And they came, everyone whose heart was stirred, and everyone whose spirit was willing, and brought the Lord's offering to be used for the tent of meeting, and for all its service, and for the sacred vestments.' Exodus 35.21. They brought more than enough to build the sanctuary. They brought so much, Moses had to tell the people to stop bringing their offerings.

Blessed Trinity people have this generous heart. Giving of your time, talents and treasures. Thank you so much for contributing to the CMA. If you haven't contributed yet, please participate at any level. The CMA supports the ministries of our Bishop and our parish. You can mail your pledge or place your envelope in the Sunday offering and it will be forwarded to the Diocese. Envelopes are available at the back of the churches.

As of March 26, 2021, 63 households/ donors have pledged $11,956 towards our goal of $16,207. This is 73.77%. Together we can meet our goal. Thank you! Kathy

Prayer of Trust and Confidence by St. Padre Pio

O Lord, we ask for a boundless confidence and trust in Your divine mercy, and the courage to accept the crosses and sufferings which bring immense goodness to our souls and that of Your Church.

Help us to love You with a pure and contrite heart, and to humble ourselves beneath Your cross, as we climb the mountain of holiness, carrying our cross that leads to heavenly glory.

May we receive You with great faith and love in Holy Communion, and allow You to act in us, as You desire, for Your greater glory.

O Jesus, most adorable heart and eternal fountain of Divine Love, may our prayer find favor before the Divine Majesty of Your Heavenly Father. Amen.

Salve Regina

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us and after this our exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!

Pray a Family Rosary.
