Divine Mercy Sunday

It has been one week since we began the Easter festivities with our celebration of Easter Sunday. The Sunday after Easter has been known by a few different names over the years: the Second Sunday of Easter, or sometimes referred to as Doubting Thomas Sunday (referencing our Gospel passage today). However, since 2000, this Sunday is now referred to as Divine Mercy Sunday. It was that year that Saint John Paul II instituted a new feast day, the feast of Divine Mercy, based on several visions and revelations received by St. Faustina Kowalska throughout her life. St. Faustina wrote in her diary about how Jesus Christ had been visiting her and revealed to her the mystery of his Divine Mercy and asked that she spread this devotion to his Divine Mercy throughout the world.

As human beings, we have limitations on everything that we do. We even have limitations on everything we can imagine. Of course, there is nothing limited or limiting about God. This is true of his love, his wisdom, his power, his goodness, his presence, and his mercy. What we celebrate on Divine Mercy Sunday is the infinite and perfect mercy that God is willing to give to us, if we but ask for it. That was the overarching message that Jesus conveyed to St. Faustina, and it is the message that he is continuing to convey to us. There is no sin too great for Jesus to forgive, no heart too hardened for Jesus to soften. The mercy of Jesus is like a fountain pouring forth from him, only waiting to be poured out onto each of us.

If you have the time, I would encourage everyone to come to St. John's Church in Clyde to celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy. At 2 pm, we will begin an hour of Adoration in front of the Blessed Sacrament, with Fr. Michatek and myself spending that time hearing confessions. At 3 pm we will sing the beautiful Divine Mercy chaplet together, and the afternoon service will conclude with Benediction.

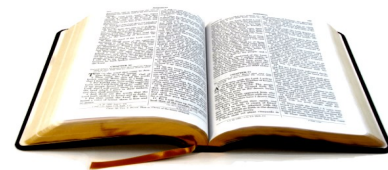

If it has been awhile since you last celebrated the Sacrament of Confession, if there is guilt weighing on your soul, if you just need to place yourself before the Lord to feel his embrace, than please come to our Divine Mercy celebration. This is a wonderful opportunity to pour out our hearts to Christ and receive healing, peace and above all, his Divine, Infinite Mercy.

Fr. Mike

As requested, the CCBT weekly bulletin will again be available outside the churches, St. Mary's and St. Thomas, in the previously designated areas. Contact any Parish Council member, if questions. Thank You.

Hence, we can truly say that she cooperated in the salvation of the human race along with Christ.

THY WILL BE DONE

Prayer Before a Crucifix

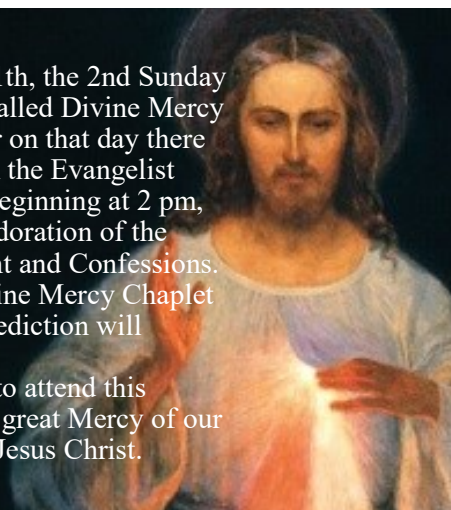

Behold, O kind and gentle Jesus, I kneel before you and pray that you would impress upon my heart the virtues of faith, hope, and charity, with true repentance for my sins and a firm purpose of amendment. At the same time, with sorrow I meditate on your five precious wounds, having in mind the words which David spoke in prophecy: "They have pierced my hands and my feet. I can count all my bones" (Ps 22).

Sunday, April 11th, the 2nd Sunday of Easter is also called Divine Mercy Sunday. This year on that day there will be at St. John the Evangelist church in Clyde beginning at 2 pm, Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and Confessions.

At 3 pm the Divine Mercy Chaplet will be sung. Benediction will follow.

You are invited to attend this celebration of the great Mercy of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

HOLY TRINITY, WHOM I ADORE
by Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity, O.C.D.

O my God, Trinity whom I adore, let me entirely forget myself that I may abide in You, still and peaceful as if my soul were already in eternity. May nothing trouble my peace nor separate me from You O my unchanging God but that each moment may take me further into the depths of Your mystery! Grant my soul peace. Make it Your heaven, Your beloved dwelling and the place of Your rest. May I never abandon You there, but may I be there, whole and entire, completely vigilant in my faith, entirely adoring, and wholly given over to Your creative action.

Psalm 118

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Let the house of Israel say,

"His mercy endures forever."

Let the house of Aaron say,

"His mercy endures forever."

Let those who fear the LORD say,

"His mercy endures forever."

I was hard pressed and was falling,
but the LORD helped me.

My strength and my courage is the LORD,
and he has been my savior.

The joyful shout of victory in the tents of the just:

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.

This is the day the LORD has made;
let us be glad and rejoice in it.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.
