Baptism: We share in your joy as we welcome the newest member of your family into God's family, the Church. Please call the Parish Office and we will set up a time to meet with you about your child's Baptism.

Marriage: You and your fiancé are called to mirror the love of Jesus for His Church. Please call the Parish Office at least six months before the intended date of your wedding so we can help prepare you for this wonderful sacrament of committed love.

Anointing of the Sick: Jesus continues His healing ministry through His Church. If you or someone you know is very weakened due to age or illness or is preparing for a medical procedure and would like to receive this sacrament, please call the Emergency Phone Line at 585-208-2433. SACRISTANS

"Others were appointed to take care of the utensils and all the sacred vessels, as well as the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense, and the spices." -1 Chronicles 9:29, NAB

St. Mary Magdalene is in need of Sacristans for the daily (Monday and Friday) and every other week-end (Saturday) Masses. Won't you prayerfully consider giving some of your time to prepare the sacred spaces for the liturgy celebrations?

Thank you for your consideration. For more information, please visit the parish website: http://www.ccblessedtrinity.org/Parish/Ministries/Liturgical Ministries/Sacristans/Parish Guidelines for Sacristans, and contact Eileen Bielemeier at 315-594-2385.

REFLECTION. I am sure that Mary's actual life must have been a very simple one.

Instead of thinking of her as unapproachable, we must realize how truly imitable she was, how outstanding were her virtues, and how she lived by faith as we do.

Psalm 118

The stone rejected by the builders
has become the cornerstone.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his mercy endures forever.
It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in man.
It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in princes.

I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me
and have been my savior.
The stone which the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.
By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD;
we bless you from the house of the LORD.
I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me
and have been my savior.
Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
for his kindness endures forever.
The stone rejected by the builders
has become the cornerstone.

PLEASE NOTE!
The Rosary will be prayed at 7:30 am before the 8:00 am Sunday Mass at St. Thomas

Come and listen, come and pray, come and worship!
 Christ is Risen! He is Risen Indeed!

Holy Hour is held every Tuesday from 7-8pm at St. Mary Magdalene, Wolcott, NY.

The Blessed Trinity Community will hold Eucharistic Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament the first Tuesday of every month from 7-8 pm.

1st Sunday Exposition

at St. John the Evangelist in Clyde

Beginning at 2 pm at St. John the Evangelist Church, 114 Sodus St., Clyde there will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and a period of Adoration followed by the recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet and concluding with Benediction.

1st Friday Exposition

at St. Michael's in Lyons

On the First Fridays of every month, immediately following the 8:30 am Mass at St. Michael's Church, Lyons, there will be Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament followed by Benediction at 10 am.

There are many disturbing things happening in our world, even in the Church and perhaps also in our own lives. When evil touches us or those we love and causes harm, it can easily seem like darkness is stronger than light. Put another way, we can be tempted to think that God is absent or that he doesn't care what happens. The truth of the matter is, that while the Lord warned us that evil would be with us until the end of the world, at the time when God ultimately triumphs, we as Catholics possess many tools to overcome evil that we often underuse. The greatest 'unused gift' we have is the Holy Eucharist, 'unused gift' meaning that we often do not take full advantage of the power of receiving Holy Communion.

The Eucharist is Jesus, not a symbol or a mere remembrance, but the Lord himself 'hidden' under the appearance of bread and wine. His Sacramental Presence exists because He wants to be near us because He loves us. Our response to this love has to be Faith: "Lord, I believe that you love me so much as to remain close to me, and among us, in the Eucharist".

When we receive Communion, we receive Jesus himself; he gives Himself to us with all the miracle-working power of his divinity. In the Gospels Jesus would ask people, "What would you have me do for you?" He asks us the same question when he comes to us in Holy Communion. Sadly, though, we often don't think to listen! In the Gospels, before a miracle, he would ask if the person truly believed—this faith was his only 'price'. When we receive Communion, we can do so much good by asking for graces and help for ourselves, our families, and the world. Jesus just waits to be asked!

Undoubtedly the world would look different if more Catholics used the power of Holy Communion. We have at our fingertips the very power of the death and resurrection of the Son of God! The next time the Risen Jesus comes to us in Holy Communion, let us welcome Him with true faith. Let us prepare our hearts by trust and by having true contrition for our sins. If we have anything serious on our conscience, let's go to Confession and so prepare ourselves for a good and fruitful Communion. Also, why not consider attending a daily Mass during the week? Why not consider paying a visit to the Blessed Sacrament at least once or twice a week? If we allow the power of our Eucharistic Lord to grow, if we look with the eyes of faith in this encounter with the living God, not only will we and our families benefit, but somehow, mysteriously, so too will the universal Church, and even, the whole world.

*Faith * Hope * Love*
