SACRISTANS

"Others were appointed to take care of the utensils and all the sacred vessels, as well as the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense, and the spices." -1 Chronicles 9:29, NAB

St. Mary Magdalene is in need of Sacristans for the daily (Monday and Friday) and every other week-end (Saturday) Masses. Won't you prayerfully consider giving some of your time to prepare the sacred spaces for the liturgy celebrations?

Thank you for your consideration. For more information, please visit the parish website: <http://www.ccblessedtrinity.org/Parish/Ministries/LiturgicalMinistries/Sacristans/ParishGuidelinesforSacristans>, and contact Eileen Bielemeier at 315-594-2385.

Psalm 103

The Lord has set his throne in heaven.

Bless the LORD, O my soul;
and all my being, bless his holy name.
Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits.

For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so surpassing is his kindness toward those who fear him.
As far as the east is from the west,
so far has he put our transgressions from us.

The LORD has established his throne in heaven,
and his kingdom rules over all.

Bless the LORD, all you his angels,
you mighty in strength, who do his bidding.

The Lord has set his throne in heaven.

Rejoice and be Glad!

He ascended into Heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead.

These beautiful words from the Apostles' Creed, express the astounding reality that forty days after Jesus rose triumphantly from the grave on that first Easter Sunday, he gathered his disciples around him and was lifted up from their sight into heaven. And that was not an illusion! He actually, physically rose into the heavens before their eyes. So we read in the Acts of the Apostles that as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven." It reminds me of children at a carnival who have lost their balloon! They keep looking for it even after they can't see it any more and their parents have to distract them, snap them out of it. Of course that's how the disciples felt, how they acted! No wonder God had to send two angels to snap them out of it! But, what does it tell us? Well, first of all, Jesus is not just a disembodied spirit. No! True God from true God, He also remains the man who was born of the Virgin and who forever intercedes for us at the Father's right hand. His work is not finished until He shall come to judge the living and the dead. And what did he tell the disciples before he ascended? I am with you always! The Ascension and the Seating at the Right Hand are so important but they can get forgotten, overwhelmed by Good Friday, by Easter, and by Pentecost. Don't let that happen in your life! Jesus lives forever and he is interceding FOR YOU at his Father's right hand. He is your advocate in heaven and... are you ready for this?.... He has prepared a place FOR YOU! The disciples couldn't stop looking up as Jesus ascended into heaven. Well, it's time for us all to LOOK UP! Keep the eternal perspective. Do not get so distracted by earthly cares and fears that you lose sight of your eternal destiny, that you lose sight of THE ONLY ONE WHO CAN SAVE YOU — OF THE ONE WHO DIED FOR YOU! Jesus Christ, God and Man, awaits you, prays for you, calls you to give him your heart, your life, so that you can live forever! Amen!

DIOCESAN MISSIONS SUNDAY

Today is Diocesan Missions Sunday, acknowledging the missionary efforts of the Sisters of Mercy in Chile and the Sisters of St. Joseph in Brazil.

We are called to take part in the missionary work of the Church. We may not all have to move to another town or city to do so, but impelled by the Holy Spirit, each one of us is to move beyond our daily concerns, important as they are, to help others live in the faith that sustains us.

Bishop Salvatore Matano calls us to a responsible sharing in the missionary works of the Diocese of Rochester. No Diocese is truly a diocese unless it extends beyond its own borders and allows itself to be touched by the presence of each churches.

May we share the gift of faith today by helping our missionary friends with our prayers and a generous gift.

In this year of St. Joseph, may God continue to bless these women and strengthen their commitment to follow Jesus.

Our Lady of Fatima urges us to pray the Rosary daily to obtain peace in the world.

Pray for Our Troops
