Psalm 98

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Sing to the LORD a new song,
for he has done wondrous deeds;
His right hand has won victory for him,
his holy arm.

The LORD has made his salvation known:
in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice.
He has remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.

All the ends of the earth have seen
the salvation by our God.

Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands;
break into song; sing praise.

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

“Behold, I am with you always.”

Mother's Day

Today, we celebrate mothers everywhere. The one's who gave birth to us, the ones who raised us, the ones who have been there to celebrate our achievements, and have been there to absorb the tears of our failures. My hope is that everyone gets a chance today to give your mother a hug, or at least a phone call, to remind her of just how special and important she is to you

I always found it very fitting that Mother's Day falls in the month of May. After all, May is the month dedicated to Mary, and Mary, though a virgin, is both the Mother of God as well as the mother of us all. When Jesus was on the cross, he spoke to both his mother and the beloved disciple John: "Woman, behold your son", and "behold, your mother". In this simple exchange, Jesus was giving his mother not just to John, but in reality, to the entire Church. Mary continues to be our guiding light. She continues to be an advocate, as she will always be there for us.

Our earthly caregivers (mothers, grandmothers, stepmothers, adopted mothers, etc.) are there to take care of our physical and emotional needs. Mothers sacrifice so much for their children, more than sometimes even they realize. To this day, whenever something happens to me, usually my first call is to my mother. I think this is the case for most of us. Other than spouses, our parents are still the ones we talk to first, for advice, to celebrate or mourn, or simply just to chat. And this is the case no matter what the age. It doesn't matter if we are 5 or 55, our mother is always our mother, and for a mother, their child is always their child.

Just as our earthly mothers take care of our physical and emotional needs, Mary will always be there to help with our spiritual needs. Mary was, and is, the perfect example of discipleship, the one who always followed her son, the one who said "Yes" to God. Mary lived a life of purity, of fidelity, and of service. All of us strive to live that same type of life, and Mary can help us along the way.

And so, my brothers and sisters, let us take this opportunity today (and everyday) to thank our mothers for all they have done for us. As we do so, may we also never forget our spiritual mother, who sits with her Son in the Heavenly kingdom, always willing to help us and guide us along this earthly journey.

Fr. Mike

DIOCESAN MISSIONS SUNDAY

On next weekend, May 15th and 16th, we shall observe Diocesan Missions Sunday. Proclaiming the Gospel is not something we can do once for all, but is an ongoing part of the Church. This is the message of the new evangelization.

"Being a disciple means being constantly ready to bring the love of Jesus to others, and this can happen unexpectedly and in any place: on the street, in a city square, during work, on a journey."

Evangelii Gaudium, "The Joy of the Gospel" (127)

Our dedicated Sisters of Mercy in Chile and the Sisters of St. Joseph in Brazil have been on pilgrimage sharing their gifts of faith and service to God's people.

We are called to help them on next weekend with our prayers and a sacrificial gift, so that they may continue to bring Christ into a world where darkness, despair and emptiness prevail. Surely, we can help to bring hope to them.

REFLECTION. Entrust to Mary any offering you wish to make to God. In this way, grace will return to its source the same way it came to us. Certainly, God could give us grace without going through Mary. But He chose not to do so.

— St. Bernard
