basement of St. Mary Magdalene's church.
- 2 groups of counters will alternate every other week.

with that of St. Joseph the Worker Parish which includes St.
John the Evangelist church in Clyde, St. Patrick church in

The look of the bulletin will be somewhat different but we think this change will be a good one.

Let us know what you think after you've seen a few issues. We welcome our parishioners' comments.

thank you

On behalf of the Pastoral Council, Father Felician and Father Mike, we would like to thank our parishioners who contributed to the 2021-2021 Catholic Ministries Appeal. Thanks to all of you, and thanks be to God, we exceeded our goal. It was uncomfortable for us to stand up in church to ask for monetary donations, but we were humbled and honestly overwhelmed by your generosity. Please accept our sincerest and most enthusiastic thank you. Christ, our Light, thank you.

Paul Statskey, Aggie Burlee and Kathy DeMass,
CMA team

Father's Day Prayer

We come together today, dear God, to honor our fathers, step dads, our dads, our pops, our friends and teachers.

Let them feel the power of our love surrounding them and may they be strengthened to continue to give all in need.

As we continue our life journeys, make us deeply conscious that YOU, God, are always with us as Companion, Friend and Father.

And let us all live as Your children wherever we go.
Amen

For Our Graduating Classes

Please pray for our graduating classes of 2021. May our Teacher, God, hold them close as they leave one school, perhaps a family home and neighborhood, and this faith community to pursue new dreams. Let us together pray that they will learn something new each day as they move forward in life and within God's divine will.

Amen

CARE NET OF WAYNE COUNTY

The 2021 Care Net of Wayne County Baby Bottle Fundraiser that began on Mother's Day, May 9, 2021 ends on Father's Day June 20, 2021.

Please return baby bottles with your donation of cash or check (made payable to Care Net of Wayne County). Bins are available at the back of the churches after Father's Day weekend to return the bottles with your donations, which are greatly appreciated. Please return the bottles even if they are not completely filled, or if you are unable to make a donation at this time, so they can be used again. Thank you in advance for your continuing generous support of this ministry!

Care Net is a faith-based ministry that helps women and men in our community with life-affirming resources for and during a pregnancy and beyond. Our mission is to offer Christ-centered compassion, hope, and help to women and men facing unexpected pregnancy and making life-changing decisions. Please contact Rosemary Seymour at 315-594-6037 or Marie Smith at 315-947-6107, if questions.

The cloud is lifting! How difficult these times of COVID have been but the cloud is lifting! Especially since Easter Sunday morning, I have been so moved to see so many of our people returning to Mass. I cannot think of anything sadder or more difficult during the lockdown than the empty pews of our churches. Anything. Now, though, we're coming back and we should come back with joy and with determination! While serving at Mass for Corpus Christi, I thought of how fitting it was that Bishop Matano and other bishops in New York State had chosen that day to reinstate the obligation of Sunday Mass attendance. If you have your Catholic Courier at home, I encourage you to read the Bishop's recent comments on this important matter. How strongly it brings to mind comments he made in his inaugural Mass when he was installed as the Bishop of Rochester. "If I can say no to the invitation of Jesus who himself declares IF YOU DO NOT EAT THE FLESH OF THE SON OF MAN AND DRINK HIS BLOOD YOU WILL NOT HAVE LIFE IN YOU; if we can dismiss this solemn declaration, of Jesus" Bishop Matano says, "then how easy it becomes to say no to any person or institution and to break or dishonor any commitment." And here is the most important question of all, on whose authority do we say these things? Not on mine, not on Father Felician's, not really even on the bishop's – or the Pope's! No, we speak only with the authority of Christ! It's not telling the whole story when we say, "As Catholics, we believe that the Eucharist is the Body and Blood of Christ." As though it is one option among many — a special "Catholic" teaching — that others are free to accept or reject. Jesus said these words when he had his largest following — five thousand people ready to accept his every word, ready to do whatever he asked but, when Jesus said it was his body and his blood and when the crowd complained, he only tightened his words, made them more specific, more literal, more, shocking, truly shocking. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. And everybody left except for the Twelve Apostles! Do not interpret Jesus' words! I say it again: Do not interpret Jesus' words! Accept them! Believe them! Accept that he who is God from God and Light from Light, he who defeated the power of death and hell and rose triumphantly from the grave, is truth himself and cannot lie or deceive. We have returned to Mass. Let us offer our sacrifice of praise! Let's us worship in spirit and in truth! Let's us believe and receive for the One who conquered sin and death beckons us: Come and eat! This IS my Body!
Deacon Greg

AN INVITATION to MEDITATE on the WORD

Are you seeking a more meaningful & intimate relationship with our Lord? Beginning in July, we are planning a new group that will meditate on Holy Scripture based upon the practice of Lectio Divina, a monastic approach to the living Word via repetition, meditation and prayer. The passages we will focus on will be from the upcoming Sunday's Gospel.

This group is open to everyone and will meet (tentatively) on Friday mornings beginning on July 9 after the 8:30 a.m. Mass at ST. Mary Magdalene. The sessions will be less than an hour in duration. Please bring your Bible or we can provide the readings.

Thank you! Please consider joining this informal, quiet and gentle group this summer.....let's bless ourselves and the Lord together!

If you have any questions at all, please contact Jill Lee at 315-744-4932, email jilltracylee@rochester.rr.com, or Kathy Demass at 315-341-8598, email kmdemass@gmail.com.

Please write the name and phone number of your nomination(s) in the space below (you may nominate yourself), detach, and put in the basket labeled "Pastoral Council Nominations" available at the back of the churches.

You may also email nominations to roseymour@rochester.rr.com or mlssmith1441@gmail.com. Please respond by June 30, 2021. Thank you.
