AN INVITATION to MEDITATE on the WORD

Are you seeking a more meaningful & intimate relationship with our Lord? Beginning in July, we are planning a new group that will meditate on Holy Scripture based upon the practice of Lectio Divina, a monastic approach to the living Word via repetition, meditation and prayer. The passages we will focus on will be from the upcoming Sunday's Gospel.

This group is open to everyone and will meet on Friday mornings beginning on July 9 after the 8:30 a.m. Mass at St. Mary Magdalene. The sessions will be less than an hour in duration. Please bring your Bible or we can provide the readings.

Thank you! Please consider joining this informal, quiet and gentle group this summer.....let's bless ourselves and the Lord together!

If you have any questions at all, please contact Jill Lee at 315-744-4932, email jilltracylee@rochester.rr.com, or Kathy Demass at 315-341-8598, email kmdemass@gmail.com.

Summer

It is quite hard to believe that the 4th of July holiday is already in the rearview mirror. It means that summer is already well under way. I have often found that parish life, as well as regular life, slows down some during the summer months. Maybe it's because it's often too hot to do too much, or just because we need some time to slow down, but summer often becomes the time of year where we take time off and get away.

My guess is that many of you will try to take a vacation during these months. Vacations are very nice and are very beneficial for us, whether we go to some far-off country or stay right in our own backyard. But might I suggest, if you can this year, to consider taking some time off, not simply for leisure, but to spend with the Lord.

Every summer, as parish life slows down, I plan a week-long retreat. Now, priests are required to make a yearly retreat, but I would make it even if it wasn't required. I have always gone to the Abbey of the Genesee monastery located in Piffard, out in Livingston County. That week spent with the Trappist Monks has always been a powerful one for me. Year after year I have received so many benefits from spending just a few days there in prayer and solitude. Just being able to step away from the rigors of life for a few days and spend some much-needed quiet time with our Lord, away from technology and deadlines and schedules, has always helped to recharge my batteries. I always come back feeling refreshed and ready to take on the challenges of parish life that await me when I return.

Now, I know, of course, that not everyone is able to take a week off to spend at a secluded monastery. But if you get a chance, I would encourage you to spend some time this summer in quiet with the Lord. Spend some time away from the noise of daily life and put yourself in God's presence. Maybe make a daytrip to the Abbey, or to Mount Saviour, another Monastery down in Elmira, in the Southern Tier. Or make a trip to one of the many shrines throughout our state. You can even set up a prayer room in your house, in a quiet area, to be with the Lord. And of course, don't forget to spend some time in the Church before the Blessed Sacrament. I can promise you that, if you take that time this summer, your lives will continued to be enriched, refreshed, and renewed.

Fr. Mike

(Please remember to pray for the monks.)
