Come and explore how to find God in the midst of life's graces and challenges. We all experience transitions throughout our lives. Especially within this past year and a half. How we cope with the unexpected; how we discern ‘what next’ and how we draw strength and wisdom from others will be the focus of the talks and prayer experiences throughout the retreat weekend. Give yourself the gift of retreat this year.

Registration begins in early July!

This weekend we are celebrating the independence of our country, we do well to be so thankful for this country in which we live. May we wisely and generously use the gifts of freedom and abundance that God has showered upon us in loving service of others.

Jesus in today's gospel returns to his home, to those he knows. He experiences a huge surprise. They were used to Jesus assisting Joseph in woodworking and probably speaking very little. But here they meet Jesus, who speaks of God with great eloquence, wisdom and self-confidence. In addition, he has the power that changes the lives and condition of the people. The image of Jesus as a youth was so imprinted in their minds that they were unable to see another face of Jesus who was once again in their midst.

Such disbelief in Jesus - his task and tools - did not end 2000 years ago. It is mine and probably your frequent experience! Many of us have become accustomed to an image of Jesus from our childhood or youth, in which each of us sits on long-established positions: "This Jesus will bring nothing new to my life. I know what He requires of me, and I just have to survive until the end of my days here on earth. Maybe there will be some surprise on the other side of my life, but I'm sure not here!" This attitude of resisting the newness of Jesus is often expressed, among other attitudes by a lack of adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, not reading the Holy Bible, the rare use of the sacraments (boredom and the same stuff in the Eucharist; I would have to go to the confessional with the same sins and so on). This reality works also in our human interactions: how many times do we approach our loved ones the same way! Do you believe and notice that those who have been around you for a long time (your spouse, your child, relative, neighbor, priest, co-worker...) can surprise you (not in the sense of a scandal)? Do you believe that he or she can bring God closer and reveal Him to you, and that God has endowed them with gifts showing us the power of God's transforming love? Let us ask the Lord this week for open eyes and open hearts, which will allow us to be effectively surprised by the action of God and of our fellow me
 Praised be the Lord Jesus Christ !!!! Fr.Felicjan

AN INVITATION to MEDITATE on the WORD

Are you seeking a more meaningful & intimate relationship with our Lord? Beginning in July, we are planning a new group that will meditate on Holy Scripture based upon the practice of Lectio Divina, a monastic approach to the living Word via repetition, meditation and prayer. The passages we will focus on will be from the upcoming Sunday's Gospel.

This group is open to everyone and will meet on Friday mornings beginning on July 9 after the 8:30 a.m. Mass at St. Mary Magdalene. The sessions will be less than an hour in duration. Please bring your Bible or we can provide the readings.

Thank you! Please consider joining this informal, quiet and gentle group this summer.....let's bless ourselves and the Lord together!

If you have any questions at all, please contact Jill Lee at 315-744-4932, email jilltracylee@rochester.rr.com, or Kathy Demass at 315-341-8598, email kmdemass@gmail.com.

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity

Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

SACRISTANS

“Others were appointed to take care of the utensils and all the sacred vessels, as well as the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense, and the spices.” -1 Chronicles 9:29, NAB

St. Mary Magdalene is in need of Sacristans for the daily (Monday and Friday) and every other week-end (Saturday) Masses. Won't you prayerfully consider giving some of your time to prepare the sacred spaces for the liturgy celebrations?
