We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

Dear Parishioners,

It is hard to believe, but the summer is over, and the “kids” are back in school. With the academic year starting again, so also begins the parish’s year of activities. As we approach September 11th, this year is the twentieth anniversary of that horrific act of terrorism. We need to pray and beseech Almighty God to turn hearts of hatred to love, and that all forms of terror end. We need to pray for the victims of 9/11 and the brave firefighters, police and rescue people who died saving others. We need to pray for the families and friends of all those affected

You should receive in September your letter about CMA.

I ask you to consider making an annual gift which allows us to continue to proclaim God’s love through the many ministries in the diocese - our catechetical, liturgical, educational, and social justice ministries. You make all of these good works possible, and we will continue to do this because of your support of this year’s CMA . I hope that we can count on your support once again.

I want to thank everyone for your continued support of our parish—Time, Talent & Treasure. I wish to thank you also for your wonderful support of our parish. Your support has truly helped us all realize that our “firsts” go to God, the Giver of all Good Gifts. This has enabled us over this last year to move forward with what needed to be done. Without your past sacrificial giving and your future selfless giving, our parish wouldn’t be what you, through God’s grace, have made it. For this I sincerely thank you.

Once again, I thank you, the parishioners, for making Saint Joseph the Worker and Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity Parishes warm and welcoming places. Many people tell me how comfortable they feel at our Parishes and how nice the people are. May we continue to be welcoming parishes. There is truly a place at the “Table” for everyone at Saint Joseph the Worker and Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity Parishes.

Let us pray for each other that God will continue to bless us; that we may be a parishes overflowing with hospitality and welcome for everyone – that everyone knows that they have a place at God’s Table.

REFLECTION. Those who belong to Mary should do all they can to win the hearts of others to her.

And Mary will enlighten those hearts, enkindle them with the love of her Maternal Heart, and inflame them with the fire of charity that burns in the Divine Heart of Jesus. — ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE

And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ.
