WITH SINCERE GRATITUDE!

On behalf of the free Community Clothing Center and the outstanding Social Ministry team here at CCBT, I would like to THANK the many generous parishioners for their response to the back-pack drive this year. We gratefully received so many beautiful new back-packs! This year each pack was stuffed with a new bath towel and lots of toiletries, as well as notebooks and day planners. The students were thrilled with all the choices of size and bright colors, and the parents expressed great appreciation. We also had enough adult-sized packs to distribute to the many migrant workers who visit the center, as well. What a joy to welcome them into our community. So once again, thank you to the parishioners here at St. Mary Magdalene and at St. Jude. You truly wowed us!

Blessings to you, Jill Lee & volunteer staff

Going to College:

Please pray for our young adults who are beginning their college studies this year, in preparation for their life's work. Pray that they will be hungry for wisdom tempered with love, and that they will discern the truth in all that they learn, those whom they meet, and the choices they will face each day.

Keep them safe and well, Lord, and assure them of Your love and ours. Amen.

"Finding God in Life's Transitions"

Notre Dame Retreat House, Canandaigua
585-394-5700 or www.notredameretreat.org

Come and explore how to find God in the midst of life's graces and challenges. We all experience transitions throughout our lives. Especially within this past year and a half. How we cope with the unexpected; how we discern 'what next' and how we draw strength and wisdom from others will be the focus of the talks and prayer experiences throughout the retreat weekend. Give yourself the gift of retreat this year. Registration begins in early July!

To learn more about these weekend retreats for women, please contact: Nancy Polacek at 315-754-6295 for Sept. retreat and Bernie Prosser at 315-902-4014 for October 22-24 retreat.

Pray for Our Troops

Sam Interlichia - Marines
Noah Foro - Air Force
Bryan Wetzel - Air Force
Matthew John Ott - Army

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in time of need. I ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Octave of the Nativity of Mary

We are currently in the middle of a very interesting week in terms of the liturgical calendar. Last Wednesday, September 8, we celebrated the Feast of the Nativity of Mary. While not as grand a celebration as her conception, celebrated on December 8 (9 months before September 8), this feast began to be celebrated in the Church as early as the sixth century, and it was fixed to the calendar before the Immaculate Conception.

Of course, Mary's birth is not recorded in the Scriptures. There is an account of Mary's birth in a writing called the "Protoevangelium of James", a non-canonical text that most likely reflected the early Christian's traditional beliefs of Mary's origin. Sts. Joachim and Anne, Mary's parents, had their prayers for a child answered when an angel came to them and said that they would have a daughter who would hold a very special place in salvation history.

While it is not celebrated this year because it falls on a Sunday, September 12 is the Memorial of the Most Holy Name of the Blessed Virgin Mary. On September 12, 1683, John Sobieski, King of Poland, led his army to Vienna, Austria, which was under siege from the Turkish Army. They successfully repelled the Turkish forces and saved the city of Vienna. The army march before a banner to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and Sobieski gave glory to the Lord and to Mary for the victory. In honor of this triumph, Pope Innocent XI promulgated the feast day of the Most holy name of Mary to the whole Church, and it was eventually fixed to September 12 by Pope St. Pius X in the early 20th Century.

On Tuesday, we will celebrate the most important feast day of the week, the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. Tradition holds that St. Helena, mother of Emperor Constantine, went looking for the True Cross on which Christ was crucified in Jerusalem. While preparing to build a basilica over the Holy Sepulcher, three crosses were found, and St. Helena believed that one was the True Cross, while the other two were from the two thieves crucified with Jesus. The crosses were then brought to a woman who was dying, and when she touched the True Cross, she was healed. The Feast day was fixed to September 14, the day when the Basilica of the Holy Sepulcher was officially dedicated. It is a day which we continue to recognize and venerate the Cross, the true instrument of our salvation.

Finally, the octave celebration of the birth of Mary ends on Wednesday, September 15, the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows. It is fitting that this day is celebrated one day after the Exaltation of the Cross. The celebration of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary occur on a Friday and Saturday in June (along with the First Friday/Saturday devotions throughout the year). Jesus died on the Cross and therefore won our salvation on a Friday, and Mary remained unshaken in her faith on the Saturday after the Crucifixion, even amid the sorrow she felt. Thus, while we venerate the Cross on September 14, the instrument of salvation, we remember Mary on September 15, who, in spite of the sword of sorrow that pierced her heart at the Crucifixion, remained steadfast in her faith, and understood the power of Jesus' sacrifice before anyone else.

This week gives us an opportunity to reflect on the relationship between Jesus and Mary as well as the role that each of them undertake in our salvation.

Fr. Mike

REFLECTION. Those who belong to Mary should do all they can to win the hearts of others to her.

And Mary will enlighten those hearts, enkindle them with the love of her Maternal Heart, and inflame them with the fire of charity that burns in the Divine Heart of Jesus. — ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE

Greetings from Fr. Michatek:

What a surprise! I was getting ready to leave for the annual NY State Fire Chaplains meeting in Watertown when I experienced a sweating event. It was unusual enough to have me call 911 and go to RGH. That was August 15.

Now 5 bypasses later with the help of your prayers and the Grace of God I am healing and doing well. I enjoyed reading your prayers and comments and visualizing your faces. Thanks for your concerns. I will meet with the heart surgeon on the 21st which would be the first I could drive. I will stay at Holy Trinity in Webster close to my appointments. I look forward to seeing you.

Fr. Bill Michatek
