Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

In the back of St. Mary Magdalene and St. Thomas churches there will be a sign-up sheet for families to light the Advent wreath in December.

Fr. Mike will bless and light the candle for week 1 and on weeks 2,3, and 4 one of our families will volunteer.

LECTORS AND SACRISTANS NEEDED

"Others were appointed to take care of the utensils and all the sacred vessels, as well as the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense, and the spices." -1 Chronicles 9:29, NAB

St. Mary Magdalene needs Lectors and Sacristans. CASE training is required by the Diocese for all volunteers. Please call the office if you have any questions.

REFLECTION. God has deposited in Mary the fullness of all that is good.

So if we have any hope, any grace, any salvation, we should realize that it all comes to us through Mary.

— ST. BERNARD OF CLAIRVAUX

Pray for Our Troops

Sam Interlichia - Marines
Matthew John Ott - Army

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us.

Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in time of need. I ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Month of Remembrance

Some of you might recall that we as a Church celebrated the two great Liturgies of All Saints Day and All Souls Day about two weeks ago. These two celebrations take place beginning on Halloween night (All Hallows Eve) and go through November 1 and 2. November 1 is the day on which we celebrate the Hallowed ones; all the Saints of the Church, both those that we know and those we don't know. We give thanks for the Saints, both for the example they gave to us on earth, and that they continue to guide us and intercede for us in Heaven.

November 2 is a slightly different celebration; in that it is not so much a celebration as it is a commemoration. We remember not the saints in Heaven, but rather those who have died but have not yet entered into Heaven. Unlike the known saints, the majority of people do not enter directly into Heaven upon their death. Instead, those who are saved enter into Purgatory, a place where a person's soul is purified and perfected, made ready for it to be able to enter into Heaven. This day, then, is a chance for us to both remember those who have died, particularly our own loved ones, as well as remember our responsibility to pray for those who are still in Purgatory. Our prayers for them help to purify their souls, thus our prayers directly help our loved ones enter into the Heavenly Kingdom.

It is not a coincidence, then, that these two days stand at the beginning of the month of November. It is a reminder to us that while there is a special celebration for the dead at the beginning of the month, the entire month of November is a month set aside by the Church to remember the dead. For those of you especially who have lost loved ones recently, this can be an opportunity for you to spend time in prayer and reflection, maybe with other family members. Something as simple as saying a prayer to God on their behalf, or maybe lighting a candle and spending some time praying and reminiscing about a loved one with family, are different ways that we can mark this month set aside for the deceased.

I encourage all of you to take the opportunity to pray for loved ones you have lost, but also to pray for those in Purgatory who still need prayers but have no one to pray for them. Remember that life is short, and one day we will most likely be in need of those on Earth to pray for us, so let us set that example and faithfully live out the last great Spiritual Work of Mercy—to Pray for the Dead.

Fr. Mike
