Living in Grace through the Sacraments

Baptism: We share in your joy as we welcome the newest member of your family into God's family, the Church. Please call the Parish Office and we will set up a time to meet with you about your child's Baptism.

Marriage: You and your fiancé are called to mirror the love of Jesus for His Church. Please call the Parish Office at least six months before the intended date of your wedding so we can help prepare you for this wonderful sacrament of committed love.

Anointing of the Sick: Jesus continues His healing ministry through His Church. If you or someone you know is very weakened due to age or illness or is preparing for a medical procedure and would like to receive this sacrament, please call the Emergency Phone Line at 585-208-2433. You can also find this number on our website by going to "Sacraments" and then clicking on "Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick". In addition, it can be found under "Latest News".

Mission Statement

"The Pastoral Council of St. Joseph the Worker Parish is a representative body of parishioners that helps to enhance our parish mission by serving as trusted advisors to our pastor in matters relating to pastoral care, finance and parish planning."

Sandy Cassetta would like to thank all the volunteers: The Joe Sapp family: Joe, Becky, Olivia and L J Sapp, Joe and Amy DeTorio, and Joanne Blandino, who decorated St. Michael's for our Christmas season and helped remove and put them away after (the mangers (inside and outside), the banners, candles, wreaths, and flowers, etc.). Also, a thank you to the parishioners who donated money for flowers and candles.

thank you

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

Our Parish Needs You!

Please prayerfully consider how you can serve, use your time and talent to help.
Lectors and Sacristans are needed for daily and weekend Masses at St. Mary Magdalene and St. Thomas.
Ministry training is available, and CASE (Creating a Safe Environment) Policy training and checks are required.
More information about these ministries is available on the parish website: cbblessedtrinity.org
You are also invited to lead the Rosary before the week-end Masses, and join the Chimes Choir which is hoping to start up again in the new year!

If interested in volunteering, and for more information, please contact the Parish Office 315-902-4130, Rosemary Seymour 315-594-6037 or Marie Smith 315-591-1051.

Our Lady of the Angels Secular Franciscan Fraternity meets on the fourth Sunday of the month at 2:30 pm in Schrader Hall at St. Mary's Church in Auburn. The next meeting is Sunday, January 23, 2022. All Professed Secular Franciscans are invited to attend as well as anyone who may be interested in the OFS.
Please contact Bill Alexander at (315) 923-7407 or walexan3@rochester.rr.com for further information.

FAMILY PROMISE UPDATE

Despite 2021 being a very challenging year on many fronts it was very successful for the families that received services from Family Promise of Wayne County, a non-profit organization on a mission to prevent and end family homelessness. An excerpt from a letter written by a recent graduate of the program says, "I honestly don't know where I'd be today if it wasn't for all the help, guidance, and encouragement I got from Family Promise! I can't thank you enough for everything you've done for my family. You are the reason I have hope and faith again!" CCBT continues to support Family Promise through Social Ministry and our meal team. We will be hosting a meal the week of January 30. If you would like to learn more about what we do or be part of the meal team please contact Marie Smith (315-591-1051) or Jill Lee (315-744-4932). They would be delighted to answer any questions you may have.

2 CORINTHIANS 5:7

Participating in the Synod in the Dioceses of Rochester Synod 2021-23

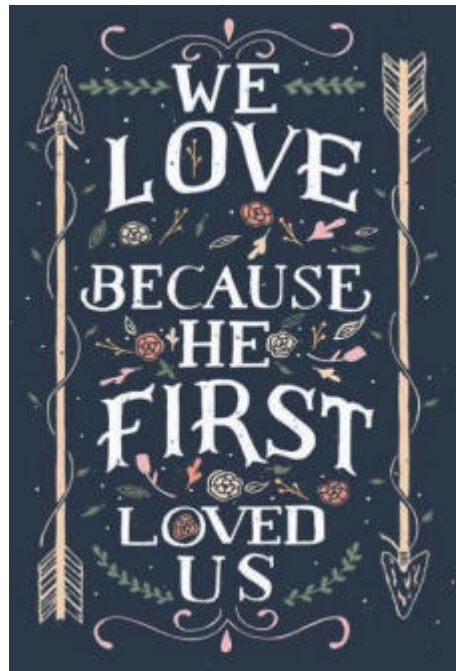

Pope Francis urged the global Catholic Church to master the "art of encounter." "Everything changes once we are capable of genuine encounters with (Jesus) and with one another, without formalism or pretense, but simply as we are.

Every encounter, as we know, calls for openness, courage and a willingness to let ourselves be challenged by the presence and the stories of others". Let us ask in church, are we good at listening? How good is the hearing of our heart? Do we allow people to express themselves, to walk in faith even though they have had difficulties in life, and to be part of the life of the community without being hindered rejected or judged?

To learn more about this important invitation and how you can participate, visit the diocesan webpage, www.dor.org/synod.

PLEASE STAY ALERT: BEWARE OF SCAMMERS

We have been alerted once again by a number of people that they have received emails and texts from people claiming to be Fr. Felicjan asking for emergency help. The request usually involves you having to purchase gift cards. We would never ask you to do such a thing. The donations that we need you to make are to the collection at our parish churches. If you receive a message from someone claiming to be Fr. Felicjan, then please take the time to stop and verify with someone on our parish staff that the request is genuine. Most likely, it is just someone trying to scam you. Here is some advice that we received from the Diocesan Information Technology Department:

Please take the following precautions:

- Do not click on links or open any attachment in email without verifying its authenticity.
- Use trusted sources such as legitimate government websites for information on COVID-19.
- Do not reveal any personal or financial information in email or over the phone.
- Do not respond to email solicitations.
- Verify a charity's authenticity before making a donation.
- Do not purchase gift cards based on an email you receive. Verify by phone call before spending your money.
