ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER PARISH PRAYER LINES

Parishioners attending St. John or St. Patrick church who want prayers said privately and confidentially by the members of the parish's prayer chain, may call:
Marianne Weaver at: 315-923-7153.
St. Michael parishioners can call Judy Tuck at: 315-946-4011.

Prayer Before the Crucifix

Behold, O kind and gentle Jesus, I kneel before you and pray that you would impress upon my heart the virtues of faith, hope, and charity, with true repentance for my sins and a firm purpose of amendment. At the same time, with sorrow I meditate on your five precious wounds, having in mind the words which David spoke in prophecy: "They have pierced my hands and my feet. I can count all my bones" (Ps 22).

MY GOOD DEED

Today we will come together for faith sharing at St. Mary Magdalene's Gathering Space at 2:00pm for our second afternoon of fellowship. In today's episode of The Chosen we see Jesus preform a miracle that the hold leaders cannot! We also get a little perspective and background on the difficulties of being Jewish and living under Roman rule! We hope to see you this afternoon as we continue our Lenten journey.

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those

Our Parish Needs You!

Please prayerfully consider how you can serve, use your time and talent to help.

Lectors and Sacristans are needed for daily and weekend Masses at St. Mary Magdalene and St. Thomas. Ministry training is available, and CASE (Creating a Safe Environment) Policy training and checks are required. More information about these ministries is available on the parish website: ccblessedtrinity.org You are also invited to lead the Rosary before the week-end Masses, and join the Chimes Choir which is hoping to start up again in the new year! If interested in volunteering, and for more information, please contact the Parish Office 315-902-4130, Rosemary Seymour 315-594-6037 or Marie Smith 315-591-1051.

Of all the Saint feast days on the calendar, there is one that might actually be more celebrated in secular society than in the Church. That saint is St. Patrick. Many of the big cities in the United States even have large St. Patrick's day parades or celebrations. It is a great day of partying for many, and a celebration of all things Irish, although unfortunately the connection with the actual saint and our faith has greatly been lost. My guess is that many who celebrate St. Patrick's day probably don't know that much about the Saint himself, which is a shame, as he led a fascinating, faith-filled life.

St. Patrick lived in the early part of the 5th Century, though was not originally from Ireland. He was born in Roman-controlled Britain, possibly in Scotland. When he was a teenager, he was captured by Irish pirates and taken to Ireland, where he was forced into slavery for 6 years. In his early twenties he escaped from his captors, and he fled hundreds of miles to the coast, where he then was able to board a ship back to Britain. After being reunited with his family, he began to study Christianity with a deep fervor.

Eventually, St. Patrick went to France to study theology, and he was ordained a Priest. The Bishop who ordained him, St. Germain, would later take St. Patrick under his wing, and he became a missionary companion of St. Germain's, on their mission to Britain to combat some of the heresies that had arisen there. All the while, however, St. Patrick felt the call to return to Ireland. In his writings, he talked about having visions of children near the Western sea, asking him to come back to the country.

After prompting from St. Germain, Pope Celestine I entrusted to St. Patrick the mission of going to Ireland to convert the country. At the time, Ireland was a pagan land controlled by the Druids. After being consecrated a Bishop, St. Patrick was sent to evangelize the Irish people. He arrived in Ireland in 433 AD. There are a few legends surrounding his mission, many of them deal with his interactions with the Druid chieftains, each of whom was unable to stop or harm St. Patrick in any way. Over the next few decades, the people of Ireland were slowly converted to Christianity, and Churches would be built all over the country. After half a lifetime of evangelization, St. Patrick died on March 17, 461 AD.

St. Patrick was a fascinating saint for many different reasons. From a slave, to a refugee, to a cleric, to a missionary, St. Patrick's life was filled with incredible moments, moments that he always attributed to Divine Providence. If you are interested in learning more about his experiences, I would encourage you to read Confessions, St. Patrick's own writings about his life and reflections on both his ministry and his relationship to the Lord. In this Lenten season, St. Patrick is a perfect reminder of how both prayer and faith have the power to change the world.
