Once again, we will gather at St. Mary Magdalene's Gathering Space at 2:00 PM for our final afternoon of faith sharing and fellowship as we watch a very joyous episode about the wedding at Cana. When the wine runs short Mary tells Jesus, "They have no wine." Can you imagine your child replying, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." But Jesus complies with Mother Mary's request, this being the first miraculous sign that Jesus gave. It was the first time that Jesus revealed His glory when He walked this earth. We look forward to our final faith sharing event. Even if you have or need to miss an episode, come anyway, as each one is meaningful in itself! Please come join us!

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

SAVE THE DATE!!!

On July 23 from noon to 3 p.m., Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity will be holding its annual Parish Picnic at the Bay Shelter at Fair Haven Beach State Park. It's hoped that camaraderie will be on display this summer! More details will be announced in the next few months.

On Thursday of Holy Week, the Church remembers Christ's Last Supper and sets the scene for what will happen the next day. At the end of Mass, the liturgy re-enacts the movement of Jesus to the Garden of Gethsemane. After processing through the church, the Eucharist is placed on the side altar, representing Jesus' Agony in the Garden as he prays before his arrest and betrayal. According to ancient tradition, the faithful are invited to continue adoration before the Blessed Sacrament for a suitable length of time during the night. This tradition of adoring Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament on Holy Thursday recalls how Jesus invited his apostles to stay with him while he prayed. Listen to Jesus' words! "My soul is very sorrowful, even unto death; remain here, and watch!"

Jesus challenges all of us to keep watch with him for at least one hour on Holy Thursday, just as he challenged his apostles on that fateful night.

Hear the words spoken by Jesus in his Agony! He came and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Could you not watch one hour?" (Mark 14: 37)

It is a challenge that comes straight from Jesus and is a powerful way to begin the remembrance of the Paschal Mystery of our salvation. Will we take up the challenge of Our Lord?

Dear Parishioners !

Many of you approached me and asked about war situation in Europe, many of you are upset about this war in Ukraine. Please allow me to share few thoughts about the world, wars and peace. In general we need to pray for peace and conversation of heart of the aggressor, in this case, Russian leadership. What is the Catholic stance on war? To answer that question, I could tell you about Jesus' actions during the Passion, as recounted in the Gospel of Matthew. At one point, Jesus is arrested in the Garden of Gethsemane by a group bearing swords and clubs. Out of a desire to defend Jesus, one of his disciples takes out a sword and cuts off the ear of a guard. Jesus tells him, "Put your sword away. For those who live by the sword die by the sword." In Luke's Gospel, he then heals the man. Thus, Jesus' final miracle before his Resurrection was one of reconciliation, after someone attacked him. Or I could tell you about St. Francis of Assisi who, during the Crusades in the 13th century, accompanied the armies of western Europe to Egypt. Francis hoped to speak peacefully with Muslim leaders, even if it meant dying as a martyr. He crossed battle lines and was taken to the sultan, Malek al-Kamil, known as a wise ruler. They recognized in one another their mutual humanity, spoke about God, and after many days of dialogue, the sultan gave Francis an ivory gift, which is today in the Basilica of St. Francis in Assisi. Theirs was a model of not only inter religious dialogue but a dialogue of peace. Or I could tell you about St. Paul VI before the United Nations, seven centuries later, in 1965, at the height of the Cold War. "It is enough," Pope Paul said, "to recall that the blood of millions, countless unheard-of sufferings, useless massacres and frightening ruins have sanctioned the agreement that unites you with an oath that ought to change the future history of the world: Never again war, never again war! It is peace, peace, that has to guide the destiny of the nations of all mankind!" You have the response of Jesus, when surrounded by guards with swords and clubs. You have the response of St. Francis of Assisi, in the middle of the Crusades. And you have the response of Pope Paul VI, at the height of the Cold War. Questions of war are complicated. But the teaching of the Catholic church is clear: We are against war. And the person who best explained this was St. John Paul II. For those who say, "The church doesn't understand war or politics," remember that John Paul lived under both Nazi and Communist regimes in Poland and, during his papacy, dealt with nearly every political leader on the world stage.

Here is part of his address to diplomats in 2003, https://www.vatican.va/content/john-paul-ii/en/speeches/2003/january/documents/hf\_jp-ii\_spe\_20030113\_diplomatic-corps.html/

at the time of the invasion of Iraq: In this time of conflict, let us ask for the prayers of those who understood war and peace: St. Francis of Assisi, pray for us. St. Paul VI, pray for us. St. John Paul II, pray for us. All holy women and men who have worked for peace, pray for us. And may Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace, guide our hearts into the way of peace.

Laudetur Jesus Christus !!!

Fr.Felicjan
