Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the people of Blessed Trinity Parish, come from diverse backgrounds and are working together to learn, live and spread the Roman Catholic Faith. We support one another on this journey of faith by studying the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and nurturing the spiritual growth of all. Our pledge is to consistently strive to build an ever-stronger parish family where the word of God is proclaimed, studied, and integrated into daily living, where we worship in prayer and in sacrament the presence of God in our midst, and where we witness the Gospel through our actions of care and concern for the needs of those around us.

SAVE THE DATE!!!

Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity's Parish Picnic!

There will be a parish picnic at the Bay Shelter of Fair Haven Beach State Park. Join us for food, fun, games, and friendship starting at noon on SATURDAY, July 23. FYI: Blessed Trinity Parish Memorial
Candle requests have increased from

In keeping with the current Catholic Eucharistic Revival, for the next several weeks & months the Holy Hour here at Saint Mary Magdalene will have a silent topic of prayer assigned to it. Look for these topics to be posted in our future weekly bulletins.

This Tuesday's Holy Hour topic is: For the strengthening of the family unit.

Backpack Collection

The Community Clothing Center and Social Ministry team will be collecting new backpacks for children of all ages throughout the month of July and August! The backpacks will be made available to families at the Community Clothing Center prior to the start of the new school year. There will be collection bins in the back of both churches for the next several weekends. Family recipients have expressed sincere gratitude for the generosity our Parish has shown in the past. Any questions, please contact Jill Lee @ 315-744-4932 or Marie Smith @ 315-591-1051. Thank you for considering a donation that will put smiles on the faces of so many children.

The Gospel of Life

Back on June 24, the Nativity of John the Baptist and the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the Supreme Court overturned the Roe vs. Wade decision from 1973. The Roe vs.

Wade Court decision allowed abortions to be performed without restrictions in all states in the US. In overturning Roe vs. Wade, this decision, Dobbs vs. Jackson, has not outlawed abortions across the country, but has rather allowed each state to make the determination as to whether or not they will allow abortions and what restrictions, if any, they will impose on abortion.

Over the last several decades, millions of men and women across the country have fought extremely hard to get us to this point. I'm sure that many of you are aware that over 60 million children have been killed via abortion over the last half century. The sheer number of lives lost during that time is almost impossible to wrap your head around. To those who have worked behind the scenes, to those who have protested, prayed, fasted, and done works of penance, know that your efforts have not been in vain. While this is a landmark step in the Right to Life movement, it is by no means the end of the road. In fact, now the road gets even harder. In promoting the Gospel of Life, our work and our mission has always been to convert hearts, not just change policy.

As we have seen over the days and weeks since the decision, the policy change has not led to conversion of hearts. Rather, the hearts of many seem to be even more hardened than before.

We have already seen Churches as well as other pro-life institutions targeted in different ways. These will most likely continue. As unfortunate as that is, we cannot let it deter us from our mission, but we also cannot let it change who we are. As I mentioned in my homily a couple weeks ago, this is not a time to seek revenge or retribution. We must meet any injury with love, compassion, and humility.

Perhaps the most important piece going forward is in regard to how we answer what might be the biggest criticism of the pro-life movement: that we care about the baby in the womb, but we don't do anything to help when the child is born. This, of course, is not true in the slightest, as our churches work with many pro-life family care centers to help parents get the care they need, and many of our parishioners work with these families as well. That being said, we need to redouble our efforts in this regard; we need to continue to support those who need help in both carrying a child and raising a child. We also need to continue to support and assist those who are trying to heal after having an abortion, showing them the same love and compassion that Christ always showed to those to whom he ministered.

The road to conversion of hearts is going to be very long and arduous; trying to undo 50 years of ingrained thought and belief will not happen overnight. Only through prayer and service will we have any hope in seeing that the June 24 decision is really a change in the tide, and not merely a blip on the radar.
