JANUARY 1, 2023

May 2023 be a year of blessing for each of you.

Today we celebrate New Year's Day, World Day of Prayer for Peace, and the Octave (Eighth) Day of Christmas: The Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God. As we begin this new year, we look at the beginning of the Gospel and our attention is drawn to the Holy Family and the birth of our Savior.

On this eighth day of Christmas, after a week has passed since the birth of Christ, Mary and Joseph brought our Lord Jesus Christ to be circumcised and gave Him His name, as was customary according to the Law. When we reflect upon the Holy Family and the baby Jesus, we see the rather humble and ordinary beginnings of our salvation.

At the heart of our faith is the Lord entering into the ordinariness of our world. The great work of the redemption of the human race is accomplished through the most simple and perfect action of unity and charity. God became a member of a human family and the whole human family, so that we may form a new family, united in the love of the Holy Trinity and made one as the Church. In a special way today, we honor Mary, who shows us what it means to love and follow Jesus. She understood Jesus' mission, after all, it was in her womb that God united Himself to humanity. She loved Him as only a mother could. She accompanied Him throughout His life and ministry. She stood at the foot of the cross and rejoiced at the news of the Resurrection. She was with the Apostles as the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church, was born when the Holy Spirit descended upon them on Pentecost. She was filled with joy to receive her Son in the Holy Eucharist.

May the LORD bless you and keep you!

*May the LORD let his face shine upon you,
and be gracious to you!*

May the LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace!

Have a Blessed and Happy New Year!

Fr. Felicjan

Today we honor Mary as the Mother of God. She was very special to be chosen by God to be the Mother of Jesus.

Mary kept all of these things in her heart. ~ Luke 2:19

"The Blessed Mother knew more about God before opening a book than most of us could discover after a lifetime of study and prayer. There is no one whose knowledge of Christ was so intimate, so deep, so simultaneously ordinary and extraordinary, as the human woman who bore him, birthed him, nursed him, raised him and eventually gave him up. This Tuesday's topic is:
For all those who are hurting.

ATTENTION BOOK LOVERS: On Friday, January 13th, we will be starting a ladies weekly morning book group at St. Mary Magdalene, 9:15-11:00 a.m. All are invited! The first book we will read aloud together is My Heart Will Triumph by Mirjana Soldo, a Medjugore visionary with an absolutely fascinating story. For more info or to purchase an advance copy for $10, please contact Jill Lee at 315-744-4932. Consider joining and increasing our devotion to the Blessed Mother together!

St. John Neumann, patron saint of educators, immigrants, and sick children, was the first male saint to be canonized from the USA. An immigrant himself, he expanded Catholic education in his region from 2 schools to 100 & ministered in 6 different languages!

Listen. Think. Act.

That is a mantra or slogan for many different groups. Some seek to battle prejudice and bias. Other groups hope to eliminate poverty or reduce crime. I have even found some companies use it as a way of increasing engagement among their employees. In a nutshell, it is about taking in what you have heard and then reflecting on it before you act. The most fruitful actions are those that take place after careful reflection.

This is important thing to remember for those trying to live a stewardship way of life. If we are honest with ourselves, too often most of us jump to conclusions too quickly or act in ways that cause friction because we didn't really think about the consequences of our action. We are moving too fast in a world that seems to be moving ever faster.

When the shepherds came to visit Jesus, the newborn King, they told Mary everything that the angels had told them. Luke tells us that after hearing all this, she "kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart." No response. No panic. No action. Her reflection was the appropriate response.

In this New Year, you and I would do well to remember this Gospel account of Mary, the Mother of God. Let us resolve to listen more, reflect often, and then act accordingly. We are called to use our gifts wisely, sowing them in good soil. If we just throw them out, allowing them to simply fall wherever they may, have we really used them for God's glory? We need to listen. Think. Then act.

Building Strong Catholic Families

In today's Gospel, we learn that Mary honored her commitment to God by naming her child Jesus, the name given to him by the angel Gabriel. In Matthew's Gospel, Joseph is told to name the child Jesus because he will save the people. The name Jesus means "God saves." Even in his name, Jesus announces the mission he came to accomplish. Your family might use today's feast as an opportunity to talk about names. Reflect together on the name of each member of the family. What does each name mean? Why was each person so named? Read together today's Gospel, Luke 2:16-21. Recall that the name Jesus means "God saves." Think about how Jesus fulfilled the mission that his name suggests. Pray as a family that each family member will fulfill their mission to be faithful followers of Jesus, in whom we find our salvation. Pray for Mary's help by praying together the Hail Mary or singing together, "Sing of Mary, Pure and Lowly."

A Year of Coming to Know God

The Gospel Story – God living a human life. What was it like for the Eternal, All-powerful God to walk around on two human legs in a small patch of the Middle East two thousand years ago? Fortunately, we don't have to just guess. There are divinely inspired records of Jesus' life on Earth. These are called the four Gospels attributed to saints Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Anyone who wants to become familiar with the Person of Jesus should study these books deeply. We don't have time to go over everything in these sacred writings, but we can at least highlight two crucial points: Jesus' Miracles and Jesus' Mission to Suffer and Die for us.
