OPEN HOUSE

YOU ARE INVITED TO OUR ANNUAL ADULT VOLUNTEER OPEN HOUSE

If you have volunteered at St. Michael's Church any time in the past year, you are invited to attend our VOLUNTEER OPEN HOUSE On FRIDAY, January 20th from 7-9 pm in the CHURCH HALL.

This is hosted by St. Michael's staff as thanks for the dedication of your time and talents to St. Michael's Church. Please RSVP by calling the Parish Center at 315-331-6753.

We are looking for adults who would be willing to become Altar Servers for our 8:15 and 10:30 Masses. As you have probably noticed we have had no Servers at the 8:15 Mass and we only have 5 youth who are Servers for 10:30 Mass. Training is provided. This is open to men and women. Please contact June if interested.

Please pray for the families of those who have died:
Raymond Arcieri
Sheila Derr

NEWARK FOOD CLOSET

Newark Food Closet, a non-profit organization known throughout the community for its outreach to all who face food insecurity, announces a drive to upgrade our delivery/pick-up vehicle. NFC, under the direction of Lisa Barrett and the council of its Board of Directors, has expanded its reach beyond the village of Newark to assist the most vulnerable across Wayne County.

This year the Newark Food Closet team has organized a drive to directly collect monetary donations that help fund a more reliable vehicle. One hundred percent of every dollar contributed will go entirely to the Newark Food Closet pick-up and delivery needs. The Newark Food Closet invites everyone in the local community to participate in this drive. Please be generous. The need is great. Checks may be made to Newark Food Closet with vehicle donation in memo and sent to the address below.

The Newark Food Closet, 301 E. Miller St., Newark, NY
Open Monday-Friday from 10 till noon.

Esta semana miércoles voy a tener cirugía para reemplazar una rodilla. Después de la cirugía voy a recuperarme en la casa central de mi congregación en Rochester. Favor de orar por mí. Gracias. Nos veremos en algunas semanas. Hermana Kay

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Showing Up

I broke my foot once, when my second child was only 12 weeks old, and I was about to move houses. For six weeks I was confined to a chair, a shrieking newborn in my arms, a toddler running circles around me, and my right foot rendered useless by a plaster cast. I couldn't do anything without assistance. I couldn't eat or get a drink or change my clothes or feed my children.

My family was in dire straits. A lot of people offered help, but there was a core group of friends and family members who really saved us.

These are the people who turned up in my driveway with empty vans and cooked meals. These are the people who blocked off their Saturdays to haul furniture, mow our lawn, and run after unruly kids. These are the people who said: "Here I am. Give me a job."

If you've ever really, really needed another person's help, you know that "showing up" means more than saying: "Let me know what you need." It means saying: "I'm already here. Tell me what to do."

So often, I pay lip service to the idea of submission. "What do you want, God?" I ask, and I secretly hope that what He wants isn't one of those things that I'm not willing to give.

What if I really strove to "show up" for God? What if I was ready to give what He asks of me, whatever it is?

Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will. — Psalm 40

Building Strong Catholic Families

The ministry of John the Baptist prepared for and pointed to the ministry of Jesus. In a similar way, our lives are to offer testimony to who we know Jesus to be for us and for the world. Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. How does the witness of our lives give testimony to the reconciling presence of Christ? Consider how John the Baptist gives testimony to who Jesus is. Talk about what people might come to know about Jesus by observing your family life. Pray together that your family life will show others that Jesus is the Son of God, the lamb who takes away the sins of the world. Pray the Lord's Prayer.

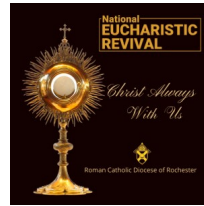

A Year of Coming to Know God

Jesus' Mission to Suffer and Die for us

God has made a world in which our choices matter. So when we freely sin, the consequences spread like ripples on a lake, causing evil and suffering throughout the world. But God's solution to the problem of evil is the ultimate act of creative genius. Christ took the ugliness of human life, concentrated at Calvary, and turned it into something beautiful, the way a great sculptor might recycle a pile of trashy tin cans and turn them into a magnificent metal statue. Now the world needs to know that the problem of evil and suffering finally has an answer in Jesus Christ. So who is going to spread the good news?
