Gospel Meditation
Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Isn't it a bit weird that Catholics call the Pope "papa," father? This Sunday provides us with essential Scriptural background on the papacy, the petrine office. Jesus gives Peter the "keys to the kingdom of heaven," after witnessing to the special grace Peter has to know Jesus' true identity. Many have pointed out that the "keys" refer back to the figure of Eliakim, King David's prime minister. True enough. But notice this is not mere authority or power. It's a family relationship. The Lord says to Eliakim, "He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem" (Isaiah 22:21). David's prime minister was a spiritual father to the family of Israel. Peter, and his successors, will be spiritual fathers in the family of the Church.

This means we have a serious obligation to not only recognize the Pope's authority, but also to love him with the affection of children for their papa. We should never speak about him with disrespect or rancor. We should listen to him with trusting hearts, and ignore the slander thrown at him in various media. When we show the world we are loving and obedient to our Holy Papa, perhaps they'll see more clearly that the Church is indeed God's beloved family.

— Father John Muir

Prayer For A College Student

Heavenly Father,
please be with these students as they go where they do not know.
As they seek to grow in knowledge,
we ask that they grow in Faith.
As they start to conquer the world,
we hope that they conquer their fears.
As they strive to find their place,
we pray that they find You.
Please go where we cannot,
protect when we cannot,
give strength that we cannot,
and bring them safely home.
Amen.

"I am the bread of life." John 6:51

The Mass is pivotal, because it transports us back in time to Christ's Last Supper with his apostles, Christ's Passion and death on the cross, and his Resurrection and the empty tomb on the first Easter Sunday. The same words that Jesus spoke at the Last Supper are used to consecrate the same things that Jesus used back then - bread and wine - during the Sacrament of Holy Eucharist. The same sacrifice is offered, namely, the Son is sacrificed to the Father on behalf of all humankind. The same risen Christ comes to enter the soul of each person at Holy Communion when the congregation eat and drink his living (risen, not dead) flesh and blood. The Eucharist, particularly at Mass, reminds us of what Jesus did for humankind in the past, makes him present in the Real Presence, the consecrated bread and wine, and promises the faithful the future glory of heaven by giving food for eternal life. Therefore, we as Catholics, see the Mass as the summit and zenith of all Christian worship. Sincerely, Fr. Felician

Today's Gospel reminds us that the Church is built on the foundation of faith in Jesus Christ. Peter announces the core of our faith, that Jesus is God's only Son. The family, as the domestic church, has this same faith as its foundation. As you gather together as a family, talk about people whose faith has helped you to be a member of the Church and talk about what you have learned from leaders in our Church today. Read together today's Gospel, Matthew 16:13-20. Talk about what you know about Peter and his importance to the early Christian community. Talk about what we can learn from Peter and his profession of faith about Jesus. Conclude in prayer together by praying today's Psalm or an Act of Faith.

Act Of Faith

O my God, I firmly believe that you are one God in three divine Persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I believe that your divine Son became man and died for our sins, and that he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the holy Catholic Church teaches, because you have revealed them, who can neither deceive nor be deceived. Amen.
