SEPTEMBER 3, 2023

As we observe Labor Day this weekend, we honor the value and dignity of work with our national holiday of Labor Day. It has been a long tradition in our country to recognize and celebrate the social and economic achievements of workers. It constitutes a yearly national tribute to the contributions workers have made to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of their country. It is now celebrated in some way in over 80 countries in the world. It is worth pausing for a moment on the religious value too.

There are different types of workers needed for our economy to function from the highly skilled to the less skilled, but everyone contributes somehow to society, each adding value at his or her level. There are many in our society who have taken less paying jobs so they can contribute somehow to their household and there are many more who work more than one job to sustain their household, barely scraping by a living on minimum wages. This weekend may we look around us and see the many people who contribute to our society at minimal wages: the gardeners, the cooks, the cashiers, the taxi drivers, the teachers, the hotel worker, the newsstand worker, etc. Today may we take the time to acknowledge their value to our society and thank them for their work. May we be appreciative of our own jobs whatever they are or were and together thank God for the gift and value of work.

All are invited to the fall session of Book Group at SMM on Friday mornings after Mass beginning Sept. 22nd. We will be reading No Turning Back, the conversion story of Fr. Don Calloway, a hip "Surfer Priest" whose devotion to God certainly led to his fascinating turnaround. The book is available online to purchase. Consider joining this great group as we read, discuss, and enjoy growing together spiritually. Any questions, contact Jill Lee at 315-744-4932 or jilltracylee@rochester.rr.com.
Hope to see you soon!

We will be moving from St. Jude to St. Thomas on Sunday September 10th. Our first Mass at St. Thomas will be on Sunday, September 17th.

Prayer for Students

Dear Jesus,
Thank you for the gift of learning!
I want to grow closer to you in everything I do at school.
In math and science, help me to see your beautiful plan in the world.
Help me to discover new stories and values as I read and write.
In arts and music, help me to be creative.
In sports, help me to treat my teammates and my opponents fairly.
Help me to learn new skills in technology.
Jesus, you are the perfect teacher.
Help me to listen with open ears, an open heart, and an open mind to all my teachers at school.
Help me to treat my classmates with care, kindness, and respect.
Thank you, Jesus, for school!
Amen.

"I am the bread of life." John 6:51

There are two main parts of the Mass. The first part of the Mass is the Liturgy of the Word, and its main focus is on Bible readings as an integral part of daily and weekly worship. The second part is the Liturgy of the Eucharist, and its main focus is the holiest and most sacred part of the Mass - Holy Eucharist. Over the course of the next several weeks, we will begin to explore and look at the first part of the Mass, the Liturgy of the Word. My hope is to present this to you in a chronological order, each week as the Mass begins from its entrance procession through the final blessing, dismissal, and recessional hymn. Sincerely, Fr. Felicjan

DIocese OF ROCHESTER PERMANENT DIACONATE:

The deacon is a man of faith, who is called from the community that already recognizes his dedication to service. He makes a lifetime commitment to serving the People of God by proclaiming the Word, assisting and presiding at liturgies, and ministering in the areas of charity and social justice. A deacon gives witness to his availability to the community by addressing present and emerging needs of the Church. The Diocese is inviting interested men of strong and active faith, who can demonstrate a record of service in the communities in which they live, work and worship, who may wish to explore a possible call to ordained ministry as a permanent deacon, to first speak with their pastor for an initial conversation. They may also contact Deacon Edward Giblin, Director of the Office of the Permanent Diaconate, at edward.giblin@dor.org, for additional information. A potential candidate must be at least 35 years of age and no older than 62 years of age at the time of ordination after a five (5) year period of formation. He must be in good health, emotionally mature, have stable relationships and must have the wholehearted support of his wife (if married) and family to enter the phase of inquiry. Because the parish is the primary experience of Church for most inquirers, the parish community is asked as well to invite from among its members men who exhibit strong faith and a spirit of service and encourage them to consider a possible vocation to the permanent diaconate.
