The Men's Group will be meeting at St. Thomas at 7 pm on the last Monday of the month from now until June. While the study of St. Paul will be the main focus, discussion is rarely limited strictly to study. Open conversations are encouraged and the environment is non-judgmental. Food is served with pizza typically a centerpiece, but often complemented with various treats brought by fellow members. Men of all ages are encouraged to attend.

Non-Perishable Food Campaign

Social Ministry is sponsoring a Non-Perishable Food Campaign to benefit the food cupboards in Red Creek and Wolcott. The campaign will run through mid-December. Our local food pantries are always grateful for our donations. Suggested needs are as follows: Bisquick (or other baking mixes that can be used to make pancakes, waffles, muffins and biscuits), peanut butter, jam, jelly, canned goods (soups, vegetables, fruit, meats, fish, beans, baked beans, stews), pasta (canned or dry) and pasta sauces. Any donations will be greatly appreciated. Please be sure to check the expiration date on any food donated. Thank you for helping to feed the hungry in our community. Please direct any questions to Marie Smith (315-591-1051) or Pam AuClair (315-529-2742).

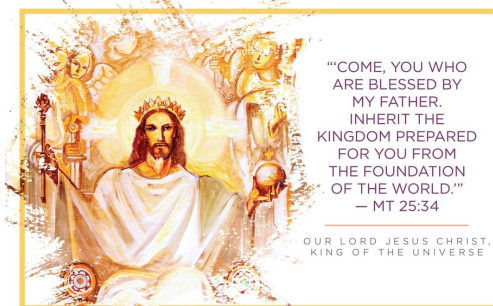

Pregnant and parenting moms are in need in our parishes and neighborhoods. As Pope Francis reminds us, our parishes need to be "islands of mercy in the midst of the sea of indifference. Everyone in our parish community should know where to refer a pregnant woman in need.

Our parish is joining a nationwide effort entitled "Walking with Moms in Need", (www.walkingwithmoms.com.) As part of this initiative, our parish will undertake a yearlong process to assess, expand and better communicate resources to pregnant and parenting moms in our local community. We invite all parishioners to join us as we begin this journey together. For more information, please contact Eileen Bielemeier, 315-594-2385 or bielemeier@gmail.com.

"I am the bread of life." John 6:51

One thing I love about our celebration of Sunday Mass is that no matter which country in the world you are in, you will hear the same Scripture readings proclaimed in its native tongue, in all Catholic Churches. It is truly a great witness that we are a one, holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church. We are all brothers and sisters, united in the Word of God. The Roman Missal is the official book the priest uses at Mass, containing all the prayers that he must say as well as telling him what to do and how to do it. The proclamation of the Gospel is the high point of the Liturgy of the Word. If you listen closely to the Sunday Mass readings, the first reading from the Old Testament and the Gospel have a connection. Simply put, the message we hear in the Old Testament reading is fulfilled through the words and actions of Jesus proclaimed in the Gospel. Before the Deacon proclaims the Gospel, he stands in front of the Priest and bows his head and says, "Father give me your blessing." The priest holds his hands over the Deacon's head and says, "May the Lord be in your heart and in your mind to proclaim His Gospel worthy and well." The Priest then blesses the Deacon. The Deacon makes the sign of the cross and answers "amen" and proceeds to the pulpit or ambo. The Gospel is introduced by the Deacon or Priest with the greeting, "the Lord be with you," and the congregation responds, "and with your spirit." The announcement of the Gospel writer is announced, and a sign of the cross, with the thumb, is made over the Gospel page of the Lectionary, while the Deacon or Priest, along with the congregation make a signing of the cross, with their thumb over the forehead, lips and heart, and silently pray, "may the Word of God be on my mind, on my lips and in my heart." At the conclusion of the Gospel, "The Gospel of the Lord," is expressed, the Lectionary is revered with a kiss, and the Deacon or Priest silently prays, "May the Gospel cleanse us of our sins." Sincerely, Fr. Felician
