FEBRUARY 11, 2024

This Wednesday we begin our Lenten journey with the celebration of Ash Wednesday. It is the day that we begin the season of Lent, when the ashes of the burnt palms from last year's Palm Sunday are marked on our foreheads.

The tradition of marking one's self in ashes is ancient. We read in the Book of Jonah that the Ninevites place ashes on their heads after they repented of their ways and turned back to God. The practice is also mentioned in the Old Testament books of Esther, Daniel, and Job. Tertullian, an early Christian theologian from the second century, writes of penitents who wish to reconcile after sinning as having ashes placed on their heads as a sign of their penitence. The first time that Ash Wednesday as we know it today was liturgically celebrated in the 700's.

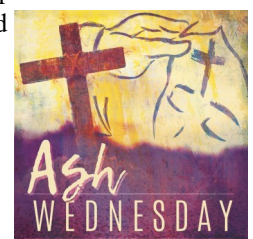

But what do the ashes mean?

One reason that we place the ashes on our foreheads is as a reminder of our mortality. One of the optional words that are spoken when the ashes are traced upon us are, "remember you are dust, and to dust you shall return." With these words we are reminded that we are mortal and that we live for eternity with God and that our lives must reflect that reality. When the ashes are spread on our heads we may also hear the words, "repent, and believe in the Gospel." Indeed, another reminder of the Good News of Christ and how it should influence all that we do.

Hopefully this sacred act of placing ashes upon us will be the beginning of a blessed Lenten Season. A season that is characterized by an increase of prayer, almsgiving, penance, and, most importantly, a deeper love and appreciation for the God that created us.

Blessed Lent,

Fr. Chichester

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Recently I had a skin rash, and it was awful. (Please don't tell anyone.) I am embarrassed to admit that I didn't handle it well. Complaining, whining, begging for sympathy, and crying were my responses to the merciless itching and burning. In the aftermath, a silver lining emerged. I feel a new heartfelt sympathy for all those vexed with chronic skin problems. If you've ever had a seemingly unending skin problem, you know how that sympathy flows up from deep inside.

This gut-level compassion is something like what the Gospel describes in Jesus when the sore-covered leper says, "If you will it, you can make me clean." At this, just before the healing, Jesus was "moved with compassion." The Greek word used here is strong and earthy, closer to "his bowels and guts trembled with the deepest emotions of sadness, pity, and love." In Jesus, God heals our infirmities not from a divine distance but by learning what it feels like to be us. He acquires first-hand experience of what it costs us to be afflicted and still be faithful to God. He sympathizes with the burning, itching, and blistering of human existence in the deepest, first-hand way. To discover that is to touch Jesus' heart.

What in your life, right now, is breaking out like diseased skin? What is getting worse the more you try to soothe it? Perhaps only you feel it. Or maybe it's exposed to all. A bad habit, broken relationship, loneliness, fear of failure, self-hatred? Name it, and then find a way to bring it confidently to Jesus who will feel what we are feeling, and thereby heal us.

— Father John Muir

LENTE DISCIPLINES OF FASTING & ABSTINENCE

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

Next weekend, February 18, There is a second collection for Black, Native American and Hispanic Missions. Thank you for your support.

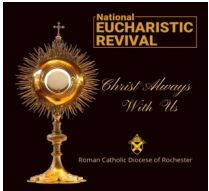

"I am the bread of life." John 6:51

The Communion Rite continues with the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) which is said or sung: "Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace." The congregation then kneels. This comes from the words of St. John the Baptist (John 1:29). The priest then genuflects, and then holds up the large broken consecrated host, and proclaims: "behold the Lamb of God, behold Him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." The congregation responds together: "Lord, I'm not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed." The priest is the first to consume the Body of Christ. Before he consumes the Holy Eucharist, he prays silently, "May the Body of Christ keep me safe for eternal life." Before he consumes the Precious Blood of Christ in the chalice he prays silently, "May the Blood of Christ keep me safe for eternal life." We will conclude the Communion Rite next week.
