Lost in the Crowd

I write my phone number on my kids' arms when we go into large crowds at summer festivals, in case we get separated. If you think this makes me sound like a neurotic person with an overactive imagination who watches too many true crime documentaries, you would be correct. I am all of those things.

However, I am also practical, and I've endured moments of panic after looking up and briefly not being able to locate a child who has wandered off or lagged behind. The phone number, scrawled across their sunscreen-streaked skin, is a safeguard, however insignificant. It's something they can hold up to show an adult, something they can point to and say, "This is where I need to be. Help me get here."

When I reflect on my own life, it occurs to me that I was born lost. We all were. It was only in Eden that a human being ever knew what it was to be at home. In Eden, I would imagine, the feeling of safety was so natural that it was only noticed after it was gone. But original sin came like a noisy crowd to bear us away from the place we needed to be, and since that time, our human lives have played out against a backdrop of insecurity and unfamiliarity. We are cold and alone and confused. And God, our heartbroken parent, never stops seeking us, never stops calling our names.

Baptism, the etching of God's law onto our heart and soul, is not a phone number written on our arms. It's something far better — it's a homing signal, planted deep within. And it will lead us back to where we need to be.

"But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD. I will place my law within them and write it upon their hearts; I will be their God, and they shall be my people." — Jeremiah 31:33

Holy Hour is Tuesday evenings at 7:00 pm at St. Mary Magdalene.

This Tuesday's topic is:

For an increase in love and understanding.

We are seeking volunteers from each Church to participate in the Washing of the Feet on Holy Thursday at the 7:00 pm Mass at St. John's. Please contact the Parish Office to sign up.

USHERS NEEDED

Our churches are preparing to resume passing the collection baskets during Mass in the near future. We are forming a list of volunteers to be ushers. (This does require CASE training). If you would be willing to help in this ministry, please give your name and contact info to John Balloni at 315-378-6290 (ST), or Jill Lee at 315-744-4932 (SMM). Not CASE trained? Please contact the office for more information on how to easily accomplish this. Thank you so much, we need your help!

CRS Rice Bowl is the Lenten Program of Catholic Relief Services. The cardboard box will be a tool in collecting Lenten alms. Your donation will support the work of CRS in roughly 45 different countries. 25% of all donations will stay in local diocese, supporting hunger and poverty alleviation efforts. Rice Bowls will be distributed at Masses. The collection will conclude on Easter Sunday.

DIAPER DRIVE

Our parish has joined a nationwide effort entitled "Walking with Moms in Need". It has been in the past bulletins for many weeks. As a part of this initiative, our first effort is to sponsor a Diaper Drive to provide for a need in our community. The diapers can be placed in the bins located at the back of each church. Thank you for prayerfully considering helping with this request.

The Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity Men's Group is back in session!

The Men's Group will be meeting at St. Thomas at 7 pm on the last Monday of the month from now until June. While the study of St. Paul will be the main focus, discussion is rarely limited strictly to study. Open conversations are encouraged and the environment is non judgmental. Food is served with pizza typically a centerpiece, but often complemented with various treats brought by fellow members. Men of all ages are encouraged to attend.

Family life is often a balancing act in which we prioritize and attend to a variety of competing needs. We learn the value of putting others' needs ahead of our own. In family life we also learn that when we make personal sacrifices to serve others, we gain so much more than we may have lost.

As you gather as a family, talk about how important it is to your family life to gladly serve one another. Ask each person to consider the last time that another family member asked for help. What was your response? Did you cheerfully try to honor the request, or did you ask "Why me?" Read today's Gospel, John 12:20-33. How do you think Jesus would want us to respond when someone in our family asks for help? Invite each family member to make a commitment for the next week to try to respond cheerfully to requests for help. Pray together, asking God's help with this commitment. Pray the Prayer of Saint Ignatius of Loyola.

St. Ignatius of Loyola

*Eternal Word, only begotten Son of God,
Teach me true generosity.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve.
To give without counting the cost,
To fight heedless of wounds,
To labor without seeking rest,
To sacrifice myself without thought of any reward
Save the knowledge that I have done your will.*

Amen.

Why do we cover the statues and crucifixes in church?

The last two weeks in the season of Lent are called Passiontide which begins on the Fifth Sunday of Lent. This is when the Church shifts her focus from Christ in the desert (the Gospel for the First Sunday of Lent) to Christ during His Passion.

These last two weeks of Lent are meant to be a time of immediate preparation for the Sacred Triduum and these veils are a forceful reminder to get ready, heighten our senses and build within us a longing for Easter Sunday.
