3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

*The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...
 He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives
 and recovery of sight to the blind,
 to let the oppressed go free.
 - Lk 4:18*

Gospel Meditation Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A young couple in my parish told me they were expecting their second child, a baby boy. I knew that their five-year old only child Emma had been desperately wanting to be a big sister for years, so I said, "Emma must have been so happy when you told her the news." "Actually," they said, "she burst into tears. She wanted a baby sister!" How often in life God wonderfully fulfills our desires and we are sad because we don't approve of the way he does it. We want to control the gift and the delivery method.

The same thing occurs in the Gospel this week when Jesus announces in his hometown that the promise of an Anointed One bringing glad tidings to the poor is "fulfilled in your hearing" (Luke 4:21). After a moment of elation, his fellow townsfolk realize this man is the way God is fulfilling his promises, and they erupt into a violent outburst. So Jesus departs. How sad for them.

Every single Sunday at Mass, including this one, some version of this happens to many of us. God's word announces the fulfillment of God's promises in Christ, and we easily overlook or disdain it. His way is almost never according to our narrow expectations. What's required of us is to set these aside, and to embrace a new openness to God's gifts, no matter how he wishes to give them. God is fulfilling his promises the way He likes — why be sad?

— Father John Muir

SOCIAL MINISTRY 2024 YEAR AT A GLANCE
Monies donated to our CCBT Social Ministry through Parishioner envelopes have been a blessing to families in our local area over the past year. We assisted with RGE, rent, and a security deposit. A $500 donation was made to the Red Creek Community Food Pantry, Wolcott Presbyterian Church Food Pantry, and the Migrant Ministry. Sheets, blankets, and towels were purchased for distribution at the Wolcott Community Clothing Center. This holiday season we adopted 2 families each from the North-Rose Wolcott and Red Creek Central School Districts, as well as one Family Promise family. In addition, we are grateful for the overwhelming support of the Advent Giving Tree, Backpack Collection, Care Net Baby Bottle Campaign, Health and Hygiene Drive, and Operation Rice Bowl. Our group of meal warriors provided meals and dined with Family Promise families on a quarterly basis. Words cannot express the gratitude we feel for your support of our Social Ministry. We are truly blessed! If you have any questions, would like to be a part of our team, or know of a family in need, please do not hesitate to contact Pam AuClair (315-529-2742) or Marie Smith (315-591-1051)

Thank you to all helped decorate our Advent Giving Tree. The warm hats, mittens and other clothing items were distributed to the children of North Rose Elementary School and the Clothes Closet.

Thanks again for your generosity!

Devotions, Explained!

The practice of examining one's conscience dates to the very beginning of the Christian faith. It simply calls for reflection on one's actions, making note of lapses in judgment that should be confessed in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus is the fulfillment of the Scripture passage he reads in the synagogue, a missive of promise and hope from an ancient prophet. But he invites us to be part of his work, here and now, in our own lives, our own communities. Be part of the fulfillment.

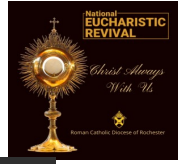

Corey Ginett
Confirmation Coordinator

The next Confirmation class will be Saturday, February 1st in the St. Joseph Worker Parish Office building 9– 11 am. If you have any questions please call or email Corey Ginett, 315-524-2611 or corrinne.ginett@dor.org.

Baptism

The Church teaches that the seven sacraments were instituted by Christ. The sacraments come out of the story of Jesus' life and actions found in the Bible. For example, baptism calls to mind the baptism of Jesus in the Jordan and the way Jesus gathered a community around himself. It also reminds us of Jesus' command to his Apostles, to carry the gospel to the whole world and to baptize them. The sacrament of Holy Eucharist recalls the Last Supper, whereby Jesus instituted this sacrament. The Gospels also include accounts of other meals when Jesus dined with those rejected by others, sinners, and tax collectors. The sacrament of penance and reconciliation reminds us of Jesus' invitation to receive forgiveness of our sins, and to forgive one another, as He forgave those who put Him to death on the cross. The sacraments also flow from Jesus' values and teachings. He raised basic values and experiences (forgiveness, concern for the sick, marriage, service) to new levels. He transformed ordinary human values into spiritual values by helping people see God's love made visible through them. As we celebrate the sacraments, we, like the first followers of Jesus, have the opportunity to encounter Him in our acceptance of the values He lived and affirmed. In that encounter, Jesus is present to us as He was present to His early Church. When Jesus instituted the sacraments and placed Peter at the head of the Church, He gave the apostles, and those who follow them in leading the Church, the mission and authority to minister and maintain the sacraments. Next week, we will start to reflect on each one of the sacraments, beginning with the sacrament of Baptism. Have a Blessed and safe week!
