Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

My parents' garage is full of old junk that no longer serves any purpose in my life. As a 46-year-old man, I admit that's pretty lame. Either due to my sentimentality or laziness (or both, probably), I just couldn't get myself to throw things away. But a few days ago, by a grace of God, I thought: "I'll hire my nephew Ryan to throw a bunch of my stuff away — he couldn't care less about my junk!" And you know what? It worked. In one day, Ryan chucked the majority of his uncle's useless stuff. I feel so free, ready for a new junk-free chapter in my life.

This kind of thing happens in this Sunday's Gospel. Peter's net is full of useless junk. Luke says he and the others are cleaning their nets after catching no fish. Imagine them dejectedly and impatiently removing a nasty assortment of seaweed, sticks and muck. The Lord teaches and calls them once their nets are cleared out. So it goes with us. Spiritual life begins by removing that which is useless and merely taking up space in our hearts, minds and lives. Then Jesus teaches and acts in a marvelous way in our lives, too.

So what's junking up your net? What habits, attachments, possessions, preoccupations? If, like me, you struggle to clean your nets by yourself, ask the Lord to send you someone like my nephew to be your "Peter" and help you clean it out. It is well worth it. Once Peter's net is clean, he is free to make a wonderful catch.

Corey Ginett
Confirmation Coordinator

The next Confirmation class will be Saturday, March 1st in the St. Joseph Worker Parish Office building 9- 11 am. If you have any questions please call or email Corey Ginett, 315-524-2611 or corrinne.ginett@dor.org.

To be safe during the winter months, when your local school is closed due to bad weather, daily Masses will be cancelled.

Have you ever felt called to walk in the Footsteps of St. Francis of Assisi? The Secular Franciscan Order (formerly known as the "The Third Order"), was created more than 800 years ago by St. Francis for lay people - married and single - priests and deacons who want to live out Franciscan spirituality in their daily lives. Our Lady of the Angels Fraternity of the Secular Franciscan Order regularly meets in Schrader Hall at St. Mary's Church, 15 Clark St., Auburn on the fourth Sunday of the month at 2:15 pm for prayer and study of Franciscan spirituality. Visitors are welcome to see if they are called to this Franciscan approach to life. For more information, please contact Bernie Tomasso, 315-246-3440 or berniest8@gmail.com.

Baptism

Sometimes people ask, "Does a Protestant have to be rebaptized to enter and join the Catholic Church?"

The short answer is no. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults explains, "Baptism is a sacramental bond of unity linking all who have been signed by it. Because of that unchangeable effect, the rite of baptism is held in highest honor by all Christians. Once it has been validly celebrated, it may never lawfully be repeated" (The Rites, Volume One, General Instruction, RCIA 4).

By validly celebrated I mean, the pouring or plunging into water, three times, utilizing the Trinitarian formula, "I baptize you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." To assist the ministers of baptism, the Catholic Church provides us with a list of those Protestant Churches whose baptisms are considered valid in our Catholic Church. Adults who need to receive baptism, request preparation in the catechetical study of the Catholic Faith. This preparation lasts for about 8 months. After that they will be received into full communion with the Catholic Church the following Easter season. Those who were baptized, receive their First Holy Communion and the Sacrament of Confirmation on the same day. Baptism confers the character of Christ, making it permanent and irrevocable. As St. Paul wrote, "there is one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all." (Ephesians 4:1-6). We will continue exploring the Sacrament of Baptism over the course of the next several weeks.

Have a wonderful week! Fr. Felician
