MARCH 2, 2025
8TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This is the last Sunday in Ordinary Time before we begin the holy season of Lent this upcoming week on Ash Wednesday. Even though Ash Wednesday is not a holy day of obligation, it is a day when our Masses are packed with people. Getting the smudge of ash on our foreheads on Ash Wednesday has great symbolism for the Catholic faithful. Every year I look forward to the holy season of Lent as a time to renew my faith and to prepare in a meaningful way for Easter and the paschal mysteries.

This weekend, right before we start the holy season of Lent this Wednesday, we hear a portion of Jesus' sermon on the plain from Luke's Gospel. We have heard from the sermon on the plain three weeks in a row. The Beatitudes from the sermon on the plain were one of the readings we reflected upon in our synodal listening sessions. Last Sunday, we heard Jesus tell us to love our enemies, to turn the other cheek, and to judge not lest we be judged. But, then today, we hear Jesus tell us that we need to look at our own faults and our own failings before we criticize our brother. The message we get from Jesus is that criticism is not bad in itself, but that it should be constructive, positive criticism. We are not to judge or brother as a putdown or out of our own righteousness, but rather to help our brother in our correction of him, doing so in a helpful way.

With faith, hope, and humility, we will journey together with Jesus during this holy season of Lent. Blessings to all of you - we will see you all at Mass on Ash Wednesday!

Praised Be Lord Jesus Christ!

Fr. Felicjan

Thank you for your generous support.

From St. Pauly Textile...
Dear Friends,
We are excited to share the impact your clothing shed made over the last year
56,383 lbs. of clothing were donated to your shed in 2024
This was enough to clothe an estimated 10,387 people all over the world
Based on this volume of clothing, your organization received $2,255.00
Thank you so much for everything you, your volunteers and your communities do to support the clothing shed program!
Sincerely, The Team at St. Pauly Textile, Inc.

LENTEEN DISCIPLINES OF FASTING & ABSTINENCE

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal. Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

National Eucharistic Revival website eucharistrevival.org
Diocese of Rochester website eucharisticrevival.dor.org

"I am the bread of life." John 6:51

Baptism

If the Sacrament of Baptism is celebrated separate from Confirmation, as in the case of infants and young children, the Priest or Deacon anoints the newly baptized with Chrism, olive oil mixed with balsam, and consecrated by the Bishop. This anointing is a sign that God has "put a seal upon us and given us the Spirit in our hearts as a first installment" (2 Corinthians 1:22). It is a sign that the baptized person shares in the kingly, prophetic, and priestly mission of Christ. After the anointing with Sacred Chrism, the minister presents a white garment and a lit candle to the newly baptized, the parents, and godparents. The white garment symbolizes becoming a new creation and being clothed in Christ: "For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourself with Christ." (Galatians 3:27). The candle is lit from the Paschal Candle or Easter Candle, which represents the risen Christ. The lighted candle is a reminder that Christ, the light of the world, is their light and that they must "live as children of light" (Ephesians 5:8). Next week we will conclude our reflection on the Sacrament of Baptism. Have a wonderful and blessed week. Fr. Felician

Next weekend, March 9, There is a second collection for Black, Native American and Hispanic Missions. Thank you for your support.
