THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "No one has gone up to heaven except the one who has come down from heaven, the Son of Man." For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. - Jn 3:13, 17

Inspiration of the Week

God did not send his son into the world to condemn it. The cross is not a symbol of judgment — the cross is what mercy looks like when it is lived out. How will we bring the cross into our lives this week? How will we live the mercy which has saved us?

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

One of my favorite movies is the 1991 comedy What About Bob? Bill Murray plays a troubled, paranoid hypochondriac named Bob Wiley who innocently but annoyingly hounds Dr. Leo Marvin, played by Richard Dreyfuss. Bob is paralyzed by his fear of, well, everything, and is convinced the psychologist can heal him. But Dr. Marvin's failed attempts to heal Bob end up driving the doctor to attempt to murder Bob. He fails. The surprise is that, having faced death head on, Bob is suddenly healed. He attributes his healing to Dr. Marvin for breakthrough "death therapy." In facing the cause of his deepest illness and dysfunction, Bob is healed.

Underneath this light-hearted comedy is a dead-serious resonance with this week's feast: the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. Christ is lifted up on the cross to force us to face the truth of sin and death. In that reckoning we find healing. Like Moses' snake on a pole, the cross says: this is what is causing your sickness - rebellion, disobedience, sin. Look at it! Don't run from it. Now seeing it exposed, we see life. We see our physician mercifully healing us. In this sense, we are all like Bob Wiley. The "death therapy" of the cross is our only hope for healing.

This week I invite you to "exalt the cross." If you don't have one in your house, get one. Use it for prayer. Gaze on it frequently. It teaches us to not be afraid. It heals us.

— Father John Muir

RECONCILIATION

We continue our reflection on the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Often Catholics are asked, "Why confess to a priest?" We don't live in our minds alone; we need to express - with words, signs and gestures what's in our minds and hearts. We need to see, hear and feel Forgiveness - not just think about it. While sin may be a secret, it is never private. The church has always believed that every sin affects the entire community. Since your sins would diminish the community, reconciliation must include the community, not just God. In the Sacrament, the priest represents Christ (the head) and the Church (the members). As Jesus' stand-in, the priest isn't learning anything new; God sees all our actions. And like God, he wants only to offer mercy. He is bound by the seal of the confessional: "He can make no use of knowledge that confession gives him about penitents' lives (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1467). So, in this sense only, all our sins remain private. We should never fear the confessional. It is there we encounter Our Lord's mercy and forgiveness.

Wishing you all a safe and wonderful week. Fr. Felician
